BEAR DOWN

ARIZONA FOOTBALL™

THE STORY OF BEAR DOWN

University of Arizona Athletics' most enduring tradition is the slogan and battle cry, "Bear Down."

More than a casual piece of encouragement, the rally cry has roots over a century old, to the Roaring '20s, and pre-dates another venerated exhortation, "Win one for the Gipper," by two years.

In the fall of 1926, John Byrd "Button" Salmon was the newly installed student body president at the UA, a promising student and member of note of several of the school's honor societies. He also was a varsity quarterback, a baseball catcher and generally acclaimed popular campus figure. He embodied all-around.

In early October after the Wildcat varsity defeated the freshman squad in an annual match at the time, Salmon and several friends were returning from a visit to Phoenix, and an automobile crash north of Tucson near Florence left the young athlete critically injured.

Salmon, then 22, lost his battle and died the morning of Oct. 18. A memorial service was held on campus that week, drawing a reported thousand mourners, and a line of cars stretched miles to his burial plot.

The coach at the time, J.F. "Pop" McKale, had visited Salmon in the hospital regularly before his death, and later told the squad the young athlete's last message to his teammates was, "Tell them... tell the team to bear down."

It's unclear whether McKale invoked the phrase to the team before one of several games that year, a contest in Las Cruces against New Mexico A&M (NMSU) that same week, or two weeks later before a game against New Mexico in Tucson. UA won both.

But when word spread, the UA student body drew to the phrase swiftly, and among other uses painted the slogan on the roof of the University gymnasium shortly thereafter, known since as Bear Down Gym. An airplane view of that huge-lettered phrase caused eventual longtime band director Jack K. Lee to write the song, "Bear Down, Arizona" during his application for the UA band job. The song, and Douglas Holsclaw's "Fight, Wildcats, Fight," are played throughout University of Arizona sporting events, and from the campus belltower daily.

Originally located outside the McKale Memorial Center upon its dedication in 1986, the bronze bust memorial to John "Button" Salmon was relocated in 2013 to more visible quarters near the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility. The new location placed the bust closer to the stadium, representative of Salmon's participation in football. The bust faces southeast so that it may look across the former Kindall-Sancet baseball stadium and on to the current home of Arizona baseball, Hi Corbett Field, as well as Salmon's hometown of Bisbee.

As part of a new tradition established with the 2013 season, Arizona football players pass and touch the bust as a show of tribute as they complete the "Wildcat Walk" and enter the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility before every home game. The "Bear Down" rally cry also appears inside Arizona Stadium. Arizona's FieldTurf playing surface features "Bear Down" in ghost lettering behind the prominent block "A" logo at midfield.

In spring of 2008, a highway memorial honoring the Bear Down tradition was installed along State Route 79 near the site of the tragic crash at Florence.

With or without the pieces of bronze and marble, Bear Down as a phrase and song has been inexorably a part of UA athletics, woven into its fabric year after year, since October 1926. Since 2000, UA Athletics has awarded John Button Salmon Awards to 23 former coaches or administrators for exemplary leaadership and service to the University, in honor of the tradition's namesake.

"Button" Salmon died generations ago but his message still echoes across every UA athletic venue, in every corner and through every building on campus, and in the thoughts of tens of thousands of Wildcat supporters past, present and future.

ARIZONA FOOTBALL
MEDIA POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Media Information
Blair Willis and Daniel Berk of Arizona Athletics Communication Services will assist media members throughout the season in their coverage of Arizona Football including issuing a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press box operations, credentialing and road-game access, among other services. Any questions about media policies should be directed to Blair Willis via email at bmw23@arizona.edu or (520) 621-0914.

Kevin Sumlin Regular Season Media Availability
Monday – Kevin Sumlin Weekly Press Conference (LSFF Room 370 | Noon)
Head coach Kevin Sumlin will meet weekly with the local media in a Monday press conference. The press conferences will begin at noon in the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility Room 370. A live web stream is available at: http://pac-12.com/videos/university-arizona.

Coach Sumlin also participates in a weekly radio show on Monday evenings at 7 p.m. at Brother John's BBQ. The show airs live on 1290 AM in Tucson, 910 AM in Phoenix and through the TuneIn app.

Tuesday – Pac-12 Football Coaches Teleconference (10:35 a.m.–12:35 p.m. PT)
Coach Sumlin will participate each Tuesday from 11:15-11:25 a.m. Teleconferences will be recorded and available online at Pac-12.com that same afternoon as the call. To participate in the call, contact Blair Willis (bmw23@arizona.edu) for call-in information.

For any out of town interview requests, please submit your request by Sunday evening. Interviews will likely be scheduled before or after the Pac-12 teleconference call listed above.

Arizona Football Student-Athlete Media Availability
(Tuesday | LSFF Sands Club | Time varies)
Select Arizona football student-athletes will be available to the media on Tuesday afternoons in the LSFF Sands Club throughout the season. The time of this availability will vary weekly depending upon the academic schedules of the chosen student-athletes. A list of the scheduled student-athletes and the start time for the availability will be communicated on Mondays.

Out of town media requests for players should be received by Sunday evening. Interviews may be scheduled and coordinated during the Tuesday afternoon availability window.

Credentials
Credentials will be issued to professional members of media outlets that regularly cover Arizona Athletics and to regional, national or visiting professional journalists. Internet entities may or may not qualify for credentials and will be considered on a case-by-case basis. All credential requests may be submitted at www.arizonawildcats.com/FBCredentials. Game-specific credential requests must be received no later than 48 hours prior to a contest. Parking and press seating may be limited for certain games. All questions concerning credentials should be directed to Blair Willis at bmw23@arizona.edu or 520-621-0914.

Arizona On Air
The Arizona IMG Sports Network, with Cumulus Broadcasting Company, uses KCUB 1290AM in Tucson as the flagship station for originating radio broadcasts, augmented by KCUB's 100,000-watt sister FM station, KHYT 107.5FM, in Southern Arizona.

Broadcasts of Arizona football games are led by Director of Broadcasting Brian Jeffries. The veteran play-by-play announcer has served as the voice of the Wildcats for football, basketball and baseball since Arizona's 1986 Aloha Bowl football appearance.

Since 2004, Jeffries has been joined by color analyst Lamont Lovett, a former UA running back. Dana Cooper rounds out the broadcast team as the sideline reporter, while Rob Joyce provides live scoreboard updates and highlights from other games around the country.

Additionally, IMG produces Spanish-language radio broadcasts for select football, men's basketball and women's basketball games. Francisco Romero provides the play-by-play commentary for the broadcasts, which are available online at www.arizonawildcats.com

In addition to the game broadcasts, the Arizona IMG Sports Network produces a weekly radio show with Kevin Sumlin. Fans are invited to view the show in person Monday nights at 7 p.m. at Brother John's Beer, Bourbon and BBQ located at 1801 N Stone Ave in Tucson.

Kevin Sumlin, a three-time national Coach of the Year finalist, was named Arizona's 32nd head coach on Jan. 14, 2018. He was formally introduced at a press conference on Jan. 16.

Sumlin comes to Arizona after serving as the head football coach at Texas A&M University for the past six seasons (2012-17), compiling a 51-26 record including three bowl victories. He also served as the head coach at the University of Houston for four seasons (2008-11), amassing a 35-17 record. In his 10 seasons as a head coach, Sumlin has compiled an 86-43 record and his teams have played in bowl games in nine of those seasons.

During his time at Texas A&M, Sumlin averaged over eight victories per season and won at least seven games each year, while competing in what many believe to be the toughest division in college football, the SEC West. His 44 wins over his first five seasons in College Station marked the second-fastest coaching start in school history, behind R.C. Slocum's 49 wins from 1989-93. Sumlin was the first Aggie head coach to lead his first six teams to a bowl game, and Sumlin's teams improved the Aggies' school record streak of consecutive seasons with a bowl game appearance to nine. His three bowl victories are tied for the most in school history. In addition, Sumlin guided Johnny Manziel to a stellar freshman season that saw him throw for 3,419 yards and 24 TDs, while running for 1,181 yards and 19 TDs en route to the 2012 Heisman Trophy.

Despite his defensive background as a linebacker at Purdue in the mid-1980s, it's been his offenses that have been his calling card as a head coach. In Sumlin's six seasons in the SEC, his offenses led the conference in passing, scoring and total offense twice. His 2012 edition became the first to break the 7,000-yard plateau in total offense with 7,261 yards, and his 2013 unit was just a yard shy of the milestone. Texas A&M owns SEC season records for passing yards (4,593 in 2013), total yards and average total offense (7,261/558.5 in 2012) and first downs (357 in 2013).

In his 10 seasons as a head coach, Sumlin's offenses have averaged more than 400 yards of total offense every season, including more than 500 yards five times. His teams have scored more than 500 points five times, including an incredible 690 points in 2011.

Sumlin's record against non-conference teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 was a perfect 5-0 (wins over No. 22 Louisiana Tech and No. 11 Oklahoma in 2012, No. 22 Duke in 2013, No. 15 Arizona State in 2015 and No. 16 UCLA in 2016). His Aggies defeated at least one AP Top 25 opponent away from Kyle Field in each of his first five seasons, and his 12 victories over Top 25 teams rank among the most in college football.

Among those wins over ranked opponents were three road victories over teams ranked in the top 10 of the AP Poll -- 29-24 over No. 1 Alabama in 2012, 52-29 over No. 9 South Carolina in the 2014 season-opener and 41-38 over No. 3 Auburn in 2014. Sumlin is the only Aggie head coach to post more than two AP top 10 road wins.

The Aggies' success on the field coincided with the team's continued upward trend in the classroom. The Texas A&M football team's 2013-14 multi-year Academic Progress Rate of 974 was an all-time high for the school, and the 2014-15 APR was 967. The Aggies also finished the 2015-16 school year with an overall team GPA above 2.70 and had more than 30 players named to the Athletics Director Honor Roll (requires a 3.0 GPA or higher) both semesters.

Sumlin was hired at Texas A&M after a successful stint as head coach at the University of Houston. His final Cougar squad set a school record with 13 victories (12 prior to Sumlin's departure to Texas A&M) in 2011 and notched the program's highest finish in the Bowl Championship Series standings. He was named the Region 5 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association that year and was one of five finalists for the AFCA's National Coach of the Year award. Sumlin guided the Cougars to berths in the 2011 Ticket Center Bowl and the 2008 and 2009 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowls.

His final season in Houston was one of the finest in the history of the Cougar football program. Sumlin's Cougars raced through the regular season with a perfect 12-0 record before falling in the Conference-USA Championship to Southern Miss. The Cougars led the nation in passing, total and scoring offense and featured the nation's leader in passing and total offense, quarterback Case Keenum. UH set NCAA FBS team records for total offense and passing yards.

His lone team to not reach a bowl was in 2010. Houston entered the season with high expectations but injuries to their top two quarterbacks, including Keenum, contributed to a 5-7 campaign.

In 2009, Sumlin was a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award after leading the Cougars to a 10-4 record, which included wins over No. 5 Oklahoma State in Stillwater, Okla., and BCS conference teams Texas Tech and Mississippi State. Statistically, UH led the nation in passing (433.7), total (563.4) and scoring offense (42.2). Houston also became just the third team in NCAA history to post a 5,000-yard passer and three 1,000-yard receivers in one season.

Taking over the reins of the UH program in December 2007, Sumlin guided the Cougars to an 8-5 record in 2008 and became the first UH coach in 28 years to lead his team to a bowl victory, as Houston topped Air Force 34-28 in the Armed Forces Bowl. He was one of only 10 first-year Football Bowl Subdivision coaches to guide his team to a bowl game and one of only six to win the bowl contest.

Sumlin went to Houston after seven seasons as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator in the Big 12. He spent five seasons at the University of Oklahoma under head coach Bob Stoops, where he served as both the co-offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach (2006-07) and special teams coordinator/tight ends coach (2003-05).

Before his arrival in Norman, Sumlin spent two seasons at Texas A&M under head coach R.C. Slocum, where he served as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Aggies (2001-2002).

During his previous stint in Aggieland, Sumlin coached several of the top receivers in school history, including Bethel Johnson, Terrence Murphy and Jamaar Taylor, who still rank in the top 10 in career catches and receiving yards.

Early in the 2002 season, Slocum promoted Sumlin to offensive play caller after the Aggie offense struggled in the first three games of the season. With Sumlin calling the plays, the Aggie offense flourished, averaging 33.0 points and 419 yards per game for the remainder of the season after posting just 16.0 points and 286 yards per game previously. A highlight of the season included a 30-26 win over top-ranked Oklahoma with the Aggies gaining 404 total yards to key the victory.

Sumlin's coaching career has also seen stops at his alma mater Purdue (1998-2001), Minnesota (1993-97) and Wyoming (1991-92).

Purdue's 1998 receivers set school records with 377 receptions for 4,208 yards and 43 touchdowns. The Boilermakers' Chris Daniels set a Big Ten record with 121 catches and recorded another Big Ten record with 21 receptions in one game.

In addition to Stoops and Slocum, Sumlin served as an assistant coach under Joe Tiller at Purdue and Wyoming, Jim Wacker at Minnesota, Glen Mason at Minnesota and Mike Price at Washington State.

Sumlin has coached in 16 bowl games, including all four traditional New Year's Day games.

A four-year letterman as a linebacker at Purdue from 1983-86, Sumlin finished his career as one of the top tacklers in Boilermaker history. He was named to Sports Illustrated's All-America walk-on list as a freshman after leading Purdue with 91 tackles.

He earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors as a senior, while ranking fifth in the league with 114 tackles, and helped lead Purdue to the Peach Bowl.

The Indianapolis native graduated from Purdue in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in both criminology and criminal justice. Sumlin has four children: daughters Courtney and Shelby, and sons Jackson and Joey.

NOEL MAZZONE

Offensive Coordinator/QBs

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: 39th

One of the nation's most innovative, experienced and accomplished offensive coordinators, Noel Mazzone is in his first season at Arizona. He arrives in Tucson following two years as offensive coordinator for Kevin Sumlin at Texas A&M. The pair first coached together in the early 1990s on the staff of the late Jim Wacker at Minnesota.

Prior to Texas A&M, Mazzone directed UCLA's offense for four seasons, and his impressive coaching resume includes time as an assistant coach in the NFL and as an offensive coordinator in the Atlantic Coast (NC State), the Big Ten (Minnesota), the SEC (Ole Miss and Auburn) and the Pac-12 (UCLA, Arizona State, Oregon State).

In addition to play-calling duties as a coordinator, Mazzone has a proven track record of developing quarterbacks for the next level. In 2017, three of Mazzone's pupils started games in the NFL, including Philip Rivers, Brett Hundley and Brock Osweiler. He has also coached Josh Rosen, a first round pick of the Cardinals in 2018, Jason Campbell and Kelly Stouffer, among other notable signal callers.

Mazzone's second and final season in College Station saw him orchestrate one of the SEC's top passing attacks. The Aggies' were third in the league with 252.2 passing yards per game, and their 53 total touchdowns were fifth out of 14 teams. Do-everything receiver Christian Kirk was the focal point of Mazzone's offense, generating 1,631 all-purpose yards before becoming a second round pick of the Arizona Cardinals in the 2018 NFL Draft.

In 2016, the first year under Mazzone's direction, the Aggies were one of a handful of FBS team to average over 200 rushing and passing yards per game, while gaining 467.1 total yards per game (No. 24 nationally, No. 2 in the SEC). The Aggies' balanced attack featured 28 rushing touchdowns and 25 passing scores. For just the third time in school history, the 2016 squad gained more than 3,000 passing yards (3,317) and 2,000 rushing yards (2,754) in a season. A&M's 2,754 rushing yards were the team's second highest total in the last 20 seasons.

During his four years at UCLA, Mazzone's offenses left a distinctive mark on the Bruin record book. The school's single season team records for passing, scoring and total offense were all established under Mazzone's watch, as well as the individual single season records for passing, total offense, all-purpose yardage and rushing.

Mazzone has a long history of developing quarterbacks. In 2015, Mazzone oversaw freshman quarterback Rosen's record-setting first season that saw him set numerous school passing records and earn Pac-12 Freshman of the Year honors. From 2012-14, Mazzone tutored Hundley, who finished his UCLA career as the total offense and passing touchdowns leader in just three seasons and went on to be drafted by the Green Bay Packers.

Prior to coaching at UCLA, Mazzone had a two-year coaching stint on Dennis Erickson's staff at Arizona State that saw the Sun Devils rank in the top 25 nationally in total offense both seasons. Mazzone worked with Osweiler at Arizona State, who became the first Sun Devil quarterback to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season. Osweiler helped the Denver Broncos to the 2016 Super Bowl and currently plays for the Miami Dolphins.

Mazzone went to Arizona State from the NFL after having served as WRs coach of the New York Jets from 2006-2008 and working as a personnel consultant for the franchise in 2009.

In 2005, Mazzone enjoyed a second stint at Ole Miss as the offensive coordinator. From 2003-04, he was the OC and TEs coach at NC State. While at NC State, he coached All-American quarterback Philip Rivers, who went on to become the fourth overall pick in the 2004 NFL Draft. The Wolfpack offense led the ACC in six offensive categories and topped the NCAA in pass efficiency.

In 2002, he was on Erickson's Oregon State staff as the RBs and special teams coach. While with the Beavers, he coached future NFL All-Pro RB Steven Jackson.

Mazzone worked as the OC and QBs coach from 1999-2001 on Tommy Tuberville's staff at Auburn. He recruited and coached the 2000 SEC Player of the Year, Rudi Johnson, a future Pro Bowler with the Cincinnati Bengals. He also tutored All-SEC QB Ben Leard, QB Campbell, and NFL RBs Carnell Williams and Ronnie Brown. Auburn won the SEC West Championship under his watch (2000 and 2001 (t)).

From 1994-98, he was on Tuberville's staff at Mississippi as the OC/QBs coach. Ole Miss won the 1997 Motor City Bowl and produced the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1950 in RB Deuce McAlister.

Mazzone was the QBs coach at Minnesota from 1992-94 and at TCU from 1987-91. At TCU, he coached QB Matt Vogler who set a then NCAA single-game passing record with 690 yards in a 1990 game against Houston.

The first stop on Mazzone's coaching journey was a five-year stint at Colorado State working with the QBs and WRs. There, he mentored Stouffer, who was the sixth overall selection by the Seattle Seahawks.

Mazzone began his coaching career, in 1980-81, as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of New Mexico. He was an assistant coach at Boulder High School in Boulder, Colorado, in 1981. A native of Raton, N.M., Mazzone graduated from the New Mexico in 1980. He also played quarterback for the Lobos, leading the team in passing in 1976 and 1977.

CLARENCE MCKINNEY

Associate Head Coach/RBs

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: 11th

With an established reputation as a top running back coach and a proven recruiter in Texas and beyond, Clarence McKinney is in his first season at Arizona as associate head coach.

McKinney's connection to head coach Kevin Sumlin goes back a full decade. In 2008, McKinney was on Sumlin's first staff at Houston where he coached running backs for four seasons and served as recruiting coordinator. He then joined Sumlin at Texas A&M, where he was the running back coach for the past six years.

Despite leaning on a pair of newcomers at running back in 2016, the Aggies produced the one of the greatest rushing seasons in the last 20 years at Texas A&M. Trayveon Williams surpassed the 1,000-yard mark with 1,057 yards, while Keith Ford chipped in 669 yards as the Aggies' rushing attack averaged 5.7 yards per carry and produced 211.8 yards per game.

In 2015, the Aggies' running back corps produced its first 1,000-yard rusher of the McKinney era when Tra Carson rushed for 1,165 yards, which included seven 100-yard rushing games.

Using a balanced rotation running backs in 2014, the Aggies' trio of runners averaged over five yards per carry while combining for 1,520 rushing yards and 15 rushing touchdowns.

In addition to his running back coach duties, McKinney served as the Aggies' offensive coordinator and play-caller for the 2013 Cotton Bowl and the 2013 regular season. Under his direction, the Aggies led the SEC in passing, scoring and total offense, while setting school records for passing yards, touchdowns and completion percentage.

Under McKinney's direction in 2012, the Aggies' top three running backs combined for more than 1,600 yards while averaging 5.5 yards per carry. Combined with quarterback Johnny Manziel, A&M's rushing attack was the best in the SEC and was the school's most productive ground game in more than 20 seasons.

Prior to Texas A&M, McKinney served as Houston's recruiting coordinator in addition to overseeing the Cougar running backs. His four-year stay at Houston was highly successful as the Cougars compiled a 36-17 record and played in three bowl games. UH posted double-digit wins twice during his stay, including 2011's school-record 13 victories and bowl triumph over Penn State.

UH's 2011 campaign enjoyed the strong play of running back Charles Sims, who gained 7.5 yards per carry on his way to 821 yards while grabbing 51 passes for 575 yards. In 2010, McKinney tutored Bryce Beall to first-team all-C-USA honors. Beall and Michael Hayes combined for 1,499 yards and 20 touchdowns. In 2009, Sims earned a spot on the C-USA All-Freshman Team after averaging 4.92 receptions per game, ranking third among FBS receiving running backs.

During his first year at Houston in 2008, McKinney guided Beall to C-USA Freshman of the Year honors after becoming the first freshman in UH history to rush for more than 1,000 yards. Beall also was named the MVP of the 2008 Armed Forces Bowl after rushing for 135 yards and one touchdown in a 34-28 win over Air Force.

Prior to joining Sumlin's staff at UH, McKinney served as head football coach at Jack Yates High School, compiling a winning record of 30-8 in three seasons. While at Yates he received several accolades, including being named a 2006 Gordon Wood 4A Coach of the Year Finalist and a 2007 Texans Coach of the Year Finalist.

McKinney also served as an assistant football coach at North Shore High School (2003-05) and Booker T. Washington High School (1997-2003) where he was named the 2003 Houston Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. Under his leadership as head and assistant coach, McKinney helped many young men to receive scholarships to NCAA Division I schools and pursue their dreams of playing in the NFL.

McKinney played football three seasons at Montana State, before transferring to University of Mary where he received his degree in elementary education. He later earned a master's in educational administration from Prairie View A&M in 2002.

McKinney and his wife, Jakmica, have three children, Britney, Atallah and Quran.

THERON AYCH

Inside Receivers Coach
Year at Arizona: 2nd
Years in Coaching: 17th

Theron Aych returns in his second season with the Wildcats after being retained by head coach Kevin Sumlin in January. Aych, who coached all receivers in 2017, will work primarily with the inside receivers in 2018. Despite a heavy lean to the run game in 2017, Aych's receivers were a consistent and critical force for the Wildcats' explosive offense. Shun Brown, Shawn Poindexter, Tony Ellison and Cedric Peterson were all regular starters that will return in 2018. In addition to combining for 108 receptions for 1,522 yards and 12 touchdowns, the quartet emerged as willing blockers on the perimeter to set up long rushing plays. Arizona was tied for the national lead with 28 runs of at least 30 yards.

By season's end, the receiving corps was in on the big plays as well, hauling in five touchdowns in the Foster Farms Bowl - all of which were at least 24 yard strikes from quarterback Khalil Tate. Brown, an honorable mention All-Pac-12 performer, led the squad with 43 receptions for 573 yards and six scores. Ellison wasn't far behind with 37 grabs and five scores, yet he averaged 16.2 yards per catch to lead all receivers.

Aych joined the Wildcats after spending the 2016 season at UTEP and the 2015 season at Angelo State, where he was a finalist for the Division II American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Assistant Coach of the Year award.

In his only season with the run-oriented Miners that boasted an All-American running back and offensive lineman, Aych coached the wide receiver unit that helped haul in 21 receiving touchdowns, the most for the program since 2010. The balance provided in the pass game allowed UTEP to improve its per-game scoring by nearly a touchdown from 20.7 points per game in 2015 to 26.3 points per game last season. Additionally, receiver Terry Juniel was named honorable mention All-Conference USA.

Before his stint in El Paso, Texas, Aych spent five seasons at Angelo State where he served as the offensive coordinator and assistant head coach from 2011-2015.

Under Aych, the Rams' offense put up staggering numbers in 2015, leading the nation (Division II) in total offense with over 560 yards per game and ranking seventh in points per game (42.5). Senior quarterback Kyle Washington, under Aych's tutelage, threw for 3,691 yards (Angelo State single-season record), ranking sixth in the nation. Washington registered 27 passing scores and only nine interceptions. Washington also rushed for 831 yards and 15 scores as he led the nation in total offense and broke ASU's single-season record for total yards with 4,522. Washington was named the Lone Star Conference Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2014, Angelo State averaged 39.4 points per contest, while racking up 469.7 yards of total offense per game. The Rams registered a 9-3 overall record in 2014. Washington set a single-season school record by throwing for 34 touchdowns and being the first Ram in history to throw for over 3,000 yards with 3,236.

Aych previously coached four seasons at Central Missouri in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association. With the Mules, Aych coached current Tennessee Titans tight end Delanie Walker, who was drafted as a wide receiver in the 2006 draft after an impressive collegiate career.

Prior to coaching the Mules, Aych spent two seasons at the University of Washington on the other side of the line of scrimmage, assisting with the outside linebackers and punters as a defensive graduate assistant. Aych coached two Huskies – linebackers Marquis Cooper and Greg Carothers – who signed NFL contracts. Cooper was an All-Pac-10 selection in 2003 and a fourth-round round selection of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

While at the University of Houston, Aych coached running back Joffrey Reynolds, who was named the C-USA Offensive Player of the Year by Sporting News. Reynolds rushed for over 1,500 yards in 2002.

The Zachary, La., native has also coached at the junior college level – Fort Scott (Kan.) Community College – and the high school level at Aberdeen (S.D.) Central.

Aych earned three letters as a wide receiver at Northern State University in Aberdeen and was an All-Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Honorable mention selection. He earned a degree in sociology and criminal justice from NSU in 1996. Aych and his wife, Gwyn, have two children, Tommy and Katelyn.

JOE GILBERT

Offensive Line
Year at Arizona: 1st
Years in Coaching: 33rd

A 32-year veteran of both the collegiate and professional coaching ranks, Joe Gilbert is in his first season as offensive line coach at the University of Arizona. Gilbert also was a line coach on head coach Kevin Sumlin's first staff at the University of Houston in 2008.

Gilbert returns to the collegiate ranks following a six-year professional stint with the Indianapolis Colts in the National Football League. First named an assistant offensive line coach in 2012, he held the title of offensive line coach from 2013-15, and again was the assistant line coach in 2016-17.

Much of Gilbert's time in Indianapolis tasked him with protecting franchise quarterback Andrew Luck. The combination of a stout line and Luck's prowess resulted in three-consecutive 11-win seasons and playoff appearances from 2012-14. The 2015-16 seasons saw the Colts finish and even 8-8 each season, before a disappointing 4-12 season in 2017 which came in the absence of Luck, who missed the entire season due to injury. Still, throughout the six seasons, the Colts set numerous franchise records that were no doubt achieved in part because of Gilbert's diligent work with the offensive line during his tenure.

In 2016, Gilbert helped with the development of one of the youngest position groups on the team. The Colts utilized seven different starting offensive line combinations and led the NFL with 34 rookie starts. Indianapolis was the only team in the league to start four different rookies along the offensive line as center Ryan Kelly (16 starts), tackle Joe Haeg (14 starts), tackle Le'Raven Clark (three starts) and center Austin Blythe (one start) all saw action. Kelly was one of 11 rookies in the NFL to start all 16 games. Haeg became the first rookie in the league to start at three positions along the offensive line (left guard, right guard and right tackle), since Kyle Turley, a first-round draft pick in 1998. Over the final eight games of the season, the Colts tied for the seventh-fewest sacks allowed (13.0) in the NFL. The unit paved the way for running back Frank Gore to rush for 1,025 yards and become the first Colt to eclipse 1,000 yards rushing since Joseph Addai in 2007. The group provided protection for quarterback Andrew Luck to finish in the top 10 in the NFL in passing yards (4,240, eighth), passing touchdowns (31, fifth) and passer rating (96.4, ninth), while wide receiver T.Y. Hilton claimed the NFL receiving title (1,448 yards) and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl nod.

Gilbert guided an offensive line that used six different starting lineups throughout the season in 2015. Versatile guard Joe Reitz started a career-high 14 games at right tackle (10), left tackle (three) and right guard (one). Gilbert was influential in the continued development of second-year tackle/guard Jack Mewhort, who started all 16 games for the first time in his career. Gilbert also tutored rookie seventh-round pick Denzelle Good, who started the final four games of the season at right tackle. The offensive line blocked for Gore, who totaled 260 carries for 967 yards and six touchdowns. His 967 rushing yards ranked third in the AFC and were the most by a Colts running back since 2007 (Joseph Addai, 1,072).

In 2014, Gilbert worked with an offensive line that saw 11 different starting lineups throughout the year. The line helped pave the way for the team to set franchise single-season records in net yards (6,506) and net passing yards (4,894), while recording its second-highest point total (458) for a season. The Colts allowed only 29.0 sacks in 2014, which ranked eighth in the NFL and was the lowest total for the team since the 2010 campaign.

In 2013, Gilbert coached an offensive line that blocked for Luck to throw for 3,822 yards and 23 touchdowns, while only allowing 32.0 sacks on the year, which ranked sixth in the NFL and fourth in the AFC. Indianapolis rushed for 1,743 yards on the season, which was the highest total for the team since 2006. Gilbert managed an offensive line that saw seven different starting lineups throughout the season. Tackles Anthony Castonzo and Gosder Cherilus were mainstays on the line, as they both started all 16 games.

In 2012, Gilbert assisted with a Colts offensive line that provided time for Luck to set NFL rookie records for passing yards (4,374), attempts (627) and 300-yard passing games (six). The line also opened holes for a Colts rushing attack that generated 27.5 rushing attempts per game and 104.4 rushing yards per game, which is the most for Indianapolis dating back to 2007.
Gilbert joined the Colts following three seasons at the University of Illinois. He was the assistant head coach/offensive line coach from 2010-11 after joining the Illini as the team's offensive line coach in 2009. Gilbert guided an Illinois offensive line in 2010 that paved the way for school records in total points and points per game, as well as running back Mikel Leshoure's school-record 1,697 rushing yards. The Illini led the Big Ten and ranked 11th in the nation in rushing.

In 2009, Gilbert guided an offensive line that assisted the team in averaging over 200 yards rushing per game, which ranked second in the conference and 17th nationally. He tutored Second Team All-America selection, Jon Asamoah, who was the team MVP, becoming the first offensive lineman to earn the honor since 1976. Asamoah was a third-round draft pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in 2010. While at Illinois, Gilbert also tutored Jeff Allen who was selected in the second round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Chiefs and has started 50-of-58 games over the last five seasons (2012-16).

Before coming to Illinois, Gilbert spent one season at the University of Houston (2008), where he led an offensive line that helped the team rank second in the nation in passing and total offense and 10th in scoring offense. The Cougars averaged 562 yards of total offense and 40 points per game as the line blocked for quarterback Case Keenum's 400 yards of total offense per game. Houston also featured 2008 All-Conference USA first-team selection, tackle Sebastian Vollmer, who has started 80-of-88 games for the New England Patriots over the last eight seasons.

Gilbert arrived in Houston after spending the 2007 campaign at the University of Toledo. He coached the tight ends in 2007, his second stint on the Rockets coaching staff. Gilbert worked with the offensive line at Toledo from 2001-03 before leaving to take the offensive line coaching position at the University of Central Florida, where he spent three seasons (2004-06).

In 2006, UCF ranked 30th nationally in passing offense (233.7 ypg.) and 34th in total offense (373.2 ypg.). Golden Knights offensive lineman Kyle Smith earned honorable mention All-Conference USA accolades under Gilbert's tutelage. Gilbert's offensive line was one of Central Florida's most consistent units in 2005. The group helped pave the way for Conference USA Freshman of the Year Kevin Smith, who totaled 1,178 yards on the ground from his tailback position. Center Cedric Gagne-Marcoux garnered Conference USA All-Conference first-team recognition, while guard L.J. Anderson and tackle Patrick Brown (former Minnesota Viking) earned All-Freshman Team honors. Guard Josh Sitton was also a member of the offensive line in 2006 and is currently playing for the Chicago Bears.

During his first stint at Toledo, Gilbert helped develop one of the nation's top offensive lines and also helped groom future New England Patriots starter Nick Kaczur. In 2001, Gilbert guided the Rocket offensive line to an outstanding season, helping pave the way for Mid-American Conference and Motor City Bowl championships. Toledo ranked 13th in the nation in total offense (444.5 ypg.), 16th in scoring offense (34.9 ppg.) and 17th in rushing offense (213.4 ypg.) that season. Gilbert's offensive line enjoyed a banner year in 2002 as the Rockets ranked fifth in the nation in total offense (472.2 ypg.), 11th in scoring (35.4 ppg.) and 16th in rushing (214.3 ypg.), while earning a second MAC West title and a repeat visit to the Motor City Bowl. Kaczur and center Chris Tuminello earned All-MAC first-team honors. In 2003, the Rockets ranked 11th in the country in total offense (462.7 ypg.) and sixth in passing efficiency (155.5). Kaczur made First Team All-MAC while fellow offensive tackle Erik Faasen earned second-team honors.

Gilbert also worked as a head coach at Mansfield University (Pa.) in 2000, and as an assistant coach at the University of Maine from 1994-99, including four years as offensive coordinator (1996-99). During his tenure with the Black Bears, Gilbert directed an offense that set 11 school and five NCAA I-AA records. Prior to coaching at Maine, Gilbert was the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Northeastern University from 1991-93, and assistant line coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Pennsylvania from 1989-1990. He started his career as a graduate assistant at the University of Albany from 1987-88.

Gilbert was a standout at Horseheads (N.Y.) High School where he earned All-Twin-Tier honors before attending Hamilton College in Clinton, N.Y. A four-year starter on the offensive line at Hamilton, Gilbert was a three-time all-conference selection, and in his senior season, became the first Hamilton player to earn First Team All-America honors.

A 1983 graduate of Horseheads High School, Gilbert earned a bachelor's degree in government at Hamilton in 1987. He and his wife, Cheryl, have one daughter, Madison, and three sons, Nicholas, Joseph and Timothy.

TAYLOR MAZZONE

Outside Receivers
Year at Arizona: 1st
Years in Coaching: 9th

Following in his father's footsteps but looking to make his own mark on the coaching profession, Taylor Mazzone is in his first season as Arizona's outside receivers coach. He is the son of offensive coordinator Noel Mazzone.

Taylor Mazzone comes to Tucson from Texas A&M, where he an offensive quality control coach the last two seasons. Working alongside his father, Mazzone had a key hand in the Aggies' explosive offensive units in 2016-17.

In 2017, Texas A&M was third in the SEC in passing offense (252.2 yards per game) and totaled 53 touchdowns, which was fifth-most in the league. The offense featured Christian Kirk, a second round draft pick of the Arizona Cardinals who accounted for 1,631 all-purpose yards.

A year prior, the Aggies were one of a handful of FBS team to average over 200 rushing and passing yards per game, while gaining 467.1 total yards per game (No. 24 nationally, No. 2 in the SEC). The Aggies' balanced attack featured 28 rushing touchdowns and 25 passing scores. For just the third time in school history, the 2016 squad gained more than 3,000 passing yards (3,317) and 2,000 rushing yards (2,754) in a season. A&M's 2,754 rushing yards were the team's second highest total in the last 20 seasons.

As an assistant coach at UCLA, Mazzone was promoted to quarterback coach in January of 2013. In the 2012 season, he was a graduate assistant coach for special teams at UCLA. He had been on the staff at Arizona State University prior to the stint in Westwood.

Quarterback Brett Hundley continued to put up big numbers in 2014 under Mazzone's guidance. He established school career records for total offense (11,713) and touchdown passes (75) while ranking fourth in the NCAA in completion percentage (.691) and 13th in passing efficiency (152.7).

Hundley, who was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 2015 NFL Draft, also became the first Bruin to throw for at least 3,000 yards in three different seasons. He finished his career with a school record 19 300-yard total offense games and posted his 10th 300-yard passing game against USC, a total which ranks second on that school list. Hundley leaves UCLA owning five of the school's 10 400-yard total offense performances. No other Bruin had recorded more than two such games. Hundley was listed among the nation's top-25 in completion % (4th-.691), passing efficiency (13th-152.7) and total offense (19th-292.2).

In 2013, Hundley threw for over 400 yards for the first time in his career (410 v. Cal, third-highest total in school history) and his sum of 428 yards of total offense against Cal ranked fourth on the all-time school list. Hundley also became the first Bruin to ever throw for a touchdown, run for a score and catch a touchdown pass in the same game. The Bruins also racked up a school record 692 yards of total offense in the game against New Mexico State. Hundley was listed among the nation's top-25 in completion % (14th.668), passing efficiency (20th-152.9), touchdown passes (23rd-24), points responsible for (14th-216), points responsible for per game (18th-16.8) and total offense (23rd-293.8).

Mazzone joined the ASU coaching staff in February of 2010, serving as a quality control coach. In 2011, he became an offensive assistant and the Sun Devil offense was ranked 25th in the nation (445.8 yds/g) and 10th in passing offense (316.7 yds/g). Quarterback Brock Osweiler (2nd round selection of the Denver Broncos in 2012 NFL Draft) ranked 11th in the NCAA in total offense (317.4). In 2010, ASU was listed as the No. 15 pass offense in the nation and the No. 29 total offense in the country.

Mazzone has also worked with college quarterbacks training for the jump to the NFL such as Tim Tebow, Christian Ponder, Robert Griffin III and Osweiler.

Taylor attended both Ole Miss and East Carolina University where he was a member of the football teams. He spent one season at Mississippi (2005) and then transferred to East Carolina where he played quarterback and on special teams under head coach Skip Holtz. The Pirates went on to play in four bowl games and capture two Conference USA championships. His ECU teams racked up 33 wins as a class.

Mazzone graduated, with honors, from Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh, NC in 2005. He was a member of the football, basketball, baseball and track teams.

JEREMY SPRINGER

Special Teams Coordinator
Year at Arizona: 1st
Years in Coaching: 6th

Jeremy Springer enters his first season at Arizona, with full time special teams coordinator responsibilities. He arrived in spring 2018 after serving as a special teams quality control on Kevin Sumlin's staff at Texas A&M.

While at Texas A&M, Springer worked directly with special teams coordinator Jeff Banks, and assisted with the tight ends. He was also responsible for organizing recruiting efforts in south and west Texas.

Under Banks and Springer, the Aggies' special teams were one of the nation's leaders. In 2017, Texas A&M led the nation in blocked kicks and blocked punts. The Aggies also finished second in the nation in punt returns and third in net punting.

In 2016, the Aggies' special teams led the nation in punt returns and allowed zero blocked kicks. A year prior, they led the nation in punt returns and allowed zero blocked kicks in 2015.

Prior to his three-year stint at Texas A&M from 2015-17, Springer was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, UTEP. With the Miners, Springer served a variety of roles.

Springer began his professional career at UTEP in 2011 as an assistant in football operations. In the role, he assisted and analyzed monthly budgets relating to the finances of UTEP Football. Additionally, Springer assisted with charter planes, summer camps, hotels, training camp, and administrative duties dealing with the UTEP Football team's day by day operations.

In March of 2013, Springer became a graduate assistant coach where he worked with UTEP's defensive line and special teams. He helped coach the Miners to their 14th bowl game in program history when they appeared in the 2014 New Mexico Bowl. In addition to his coaching duties, he managed on-campus recruiting throughout the year and was a primary in-house recruiter for Georiga and Florida.

Springer played collegiately at UTEP from 2007-11, where he was a standout linebacker. He also played special teams for Banks, who was the coordinator for the Miners. In 33 games, he compiled 161 tackles, 10.0 tackles for loss and one interception. He was the recipient of a Conference USA Academic Medal (minimum 3.75 GPA) as a freshman and a four-time member of the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll.

A native of Los Fresnos, Texas, Springer has a twin brother, Justin, who played football at Kansas. Justin is now a member of the UA strength and conditioning staff.

MARCEL YATES

Defensive Coordinator/LB

Year at Arizona: 3rd
Years in Coaching: 18th

Marcel Yates returns for his third season as Arizona's defensive coordinator and is re-united with Kevin Sumlin, who he worked for as a co-coordinator at Texas A&M from 2012-13. Yates, who coached linebackers for the Wildcats in 2016 and then cornerbacks in 2017, will again coach linebackers this season. Prior to being retained by Sumlin, Yates served as the program's interim head coach from Jan. 2-14.

In 2017, Yates coached one of the youngest defenses in the Pac-12. His unit regularly started five freshmen, including linebackers Tony Fields II and Colin Schooler, along with rush end Kylan Wilborn. Each was a true freshman that garnered at least one Freshman All-American honor, while Schooler was named the Pac-12's Defensive Freshmen of the Year. Fields II was the team's leading tackler, totaling 104, which was more than any UA freshmen in at least 20 seasons. Schooler racked up 13.5 tackles for loss (all in conference play), which against was the most by a freshman since at least 1997. And then Wilborn registered 7.5 sacks, a tally that led all Power 5 freshman.

The Wildcats also became a much more opportunistic defense in Yates' second season. Arizona intercepted 19 passes, which was tied for seventh-most nationally and the most for the program since the 1985 season. In total, the Cats forced 25 turnovers, which another top-25 mark nationally. Redshirt freshman cornerback Lorenzo Burns picked off five passes, which was the second-most by a freshman in the FBS, and junior corner Jace Whittaker added three interceptions for Yates' starting cornerback duo.

Arizona's defense in 2016 was also young, undersized and battled injuries throughout the year. Still, in Yates' first season working with linebackers, he developed Paul Magloire Jr. – a converted safety – into the team's leading tackler with 81 total stops and 5.5 for loss. Magloire Jr. signed a free agent contract with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Yates previously served as the defensive coordinator at Boise State where he led an attacking-style defense with a reputation for forcing turnovers the past two seasons. Under Yates, the Broncos' defense ranked highly in notable categories, including being one of two teams nationally to post top-10 finishes for turnovers forced each of the last two years. His 2014 unit also ranked seventh nationally in both tackles for loss and sacks, while the 2015 squad turned in the fifth-best rush defense, 12th total defense and 18th-best scoring defense. The Broncos earned a pair of bowl victories along with the 2014 Mountain West championship in Yates' tenure as a coordinator.

In his entire time as an assistant at Boise State, the Broncos won seven conference championships in nine seasons and appeared in a bowl game each year. The Broncos won five of the bowl games, including both the 2007 and 2010 Tostitos Fiesta Bowls.

During his final six seasons with Boise State, five defensive backs went on to be selected in the National Football League Draft: Gerald Alexander (Second Round, Detroit Lions, 2007), Orlando Scandrick (Fifth Round, Dallas Cowboys, 2008), Kyle Wilson (First Round, New York Jets, 2010), Brandyn Thompson (Seventh Round, Washington Redskins, 2011) and George Iloka (Fifth Round, Cincinnati Bengals, 2012).

A graduate of Boise State and an assistant coach with the Broncos from 2003-11, Yates returned to his alma mater in 2014 following a two-year stint as the co-defensive coordinator at Texas A&M. During his time in College Station, the Aggies concluded the 2012 season ranked fifth nationally in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls, and won 11 games for the first time since 1998. The Aggies went 9-4 in 2013, finishing the season ranked No. 18 in each poll.

Yates, who played defensive back for the Broncos from 1996-99, was Boise State's cornerbacks coach from 2003-05, before taking over the entire secondary from 2006-11. He added defensive pass game coordinator responsibilities in 2011, before moving on to Texas A&M.

While with the Broncos in his initial stint as an assistant, Boise State won seven conference championships in nine seasons and appeared in a bowl game each year. The Broncos won five of the bowl games, including both the 2007 and 2010 Tostitos Fiesta Bowls.

Prior to his first job at Boise State in 2003, Yates was an assistant secondary coach at Montana State from 2001-02. In his second season with the Bobcats, Montana State won its first Big Sky Conference Championship and earned its first NCAA Division I-AA Playoff appearance in 18 years.

Yates earned his bachelor's degree in social science from Boise State in 2000. Following his senior season, he earned the team's Denny Erickson Award for Valor. He has two children, daughter Kaybrie and son Eric.

DEMETRICE MARTIN

Cornerbacks

Year at Arizona: 1st
Years in Coaching: 18th

Regarded as one of the top recruiters on the West Coast, Demtrice Martin is in his first season at Arizona. He joined Kevin Sumlin's staff in the spring of 2018 as the cornerbacks coach.

Martin brings a wealth of experience in developing defensive backs, in addition to his familiarity with the Pac-12 landscape. Most recently, Martin spent six seasons on staff at UCLA from 2011-17. He previously was an assistant at Washington for three seasons (2008-10) and a graduate assistant at USC (2006-07).

In 2011, Martin left Washington to join Jim Mora Jr.'s first staff at UCLA. He was promoted to Assistant Head Coach at UCLA in February of 2014 and then to Assistant Head Coach-Defense/Defensive Backs in February of 2015.

In 2016, the Bruins secondary ranked seventh in the nation in pass defense efficiency (105.8) and 22nd in the nation in interceptions (15). Those marks ranked second and third in the Pac-12 conference listings. In addition, the Bruins rated 38th in the nation in turnovers gained (23). UCLA gave up just 12 touchdown passes on the year, the lowest total by a Pac-12 school. The 5.7 yards per pass attempt allowed ranked tied for the lowest mark in the conference.

Fabian Moreau, Randall Goforth and Jaleel Wadood each earned honorable mention all-conference recognition. Moreau was a third-round pick of the Washington Redskins in the 2017 NFL Draft. Goforth, who signed with the Eagles, ranked 31st in the nation in total interceptions (4) and 21st in the nation in passes defended (1.2). Wadood was tied for 9th in the Pac-12 in tackles (7.0/g). Moreau ranked tied for sixth in the league in passes defended (1.0). Marcus Rios inked a contract with the Denver Broncos and Ishmael Adams signed with the Rams.

In 2015, the Bruins secondary led the Pac-12 in pass defense, allowing the fewest average yards per game and the lowest average yards per pass attempt (5.6) of any school in the 2015 season. UCLA also led the Pac-12 Conference in pass defense efficiency (111.5), ranking 18th nationally in the category, and producing three players who received all-conference recognition - Goforth (second team), Wadood (second team) and Rios (honorable mention).

In 2014, four of his defensive backs were honored with All-Pac-12 accolades (Adams-1st team; Moreau and Anthony Jefferson-2nd team; Wadood honorable mention). The unit ranked third in the Pac-12 conference in pass defense. Jefferson, who led the secondary with 72 tackles and was invited to the Senior Bowl, signed with the Chicago Bears. He joined Moreau in a tie for the team lead with eight passes defensed.

Martin helped to prepare a secondary which featured three new starters, in 2013. Adams, who came on to lead the team in interceptions, and Moreau were first-time starters at the corners. Jefferson ranked third on the team in tackles (89) in his initial season as a starter. Goforth, the veteran of the group in his sophomore season, was fourth on the squad in tackles (78) and second with three interceptions.

Martin mentored a veteran group in his first season on the field with the Bruins. Senior cornerback Sheldon Price, who moved on to the Indianapolis Colts, matched a school record with three interceptions in the Houston win. Andrew Abbott, along with Price, ranked among the Pac-12 leaders with four interceptions in 2012.Tevin McDonald was listed with the conference leaders in passes defensed.

Martin had been on the University of Washington staff for three seasons prior to leaving for UCLA. The 2010 Husky secondary finished second in the Pac-10 in pass defense.

In 2006 and 2007, he was a defensive graduate assistant at USC, working with the Trojan secondary. The Trojans played in the 2007 Rose Bowl.

Prior to joining the USC staff, Martin spent three seasons (2003-05) as the pass defense coordinator and secondary coach at Mt. San Antonio College (Mt. SAC) in Walnut, CA. The Mounties played in the National Bowl in 2003 and 2004. He was also the secondary coach at Pasadena City College in 2001 and 2002. The Lancers went 18-4 during that period, winning the Mission Conference title both seasons and appearing in two bowl games. He began his career in coaching at Monrovia (Calif.) High (1999-2000).

A product of Pasadena (Calif.) Muir High School, Martin went to Michigan State, where he played wide receiver and cornerback from 1992 to 1995, earning first-team All-Big Ten honors in 1994 when he led the conference with seven interceptions. He had 10 interceptions in his career and the Spartans went on to play in the Liberty (1993) and Independence (1995) bowl games.

Martin played professionally as a cornerback for the Scottish Claymores in NFL Europe (1997) and for the Houston Thunderbears (1998-99) in the Arena Football League. He signed as a free agent with the St. Louis Rams in the NFL and spent time on the practice squad.

JOHN RUSHING

Safeties

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: TBA

An established recruiter with extensive NFL and collegiate coaching experience, John Rushing enters his first season as the safeties coach at Arizona. He comes to Tucson after spending one year in the same capacity at Oregon State.

Rushing's arrival in the desert is a reunion of sorts. First, he played collegiately at Washington State from 1990-95, beginning his career at the same time current Arizona head coach Kevin Sumlin was a graduate assistant in Pullman. Then when Rushing began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Boise State, current UA defensive coordinator Marcel Yates was playing defensive back for the Broncos.

Prior to Rushing's one year in Corvallis, he worked one season as special teams and defensive consultant for the Los Angeles Rams and previously served seven seasons in various roles with the Green Bay Packers.

A three-time NFL Pro Bowl coach, Rushing's responsibilities with the Packers included offensive quality control (2009-10), assistant wide receivers and special teams coach (2011), offensive quality control/runningbacks and special teams (2012-13) and also defensive quality control/defensive backs (2014-16).

During his time in Green Bay, the Packers compiled a 94-46-1 record, highlighted by the 2011 Super Bowl Championship. Along the way, they won five NFC North Division titles, including from 2011-14 and again in 2016. Among the players Rushing coached were receiver Greg Jennings, who participated in the 2011 Pro Bowl, and running back Eddie Lacey, the 2013 NFL Rookie of the Year.

Rushing broke into the professional coaching ranks after seven seasons tutoring the secondary at Utah State. He was the secondary coach from 2003-05, and focused on cornerbacks and punt return from 2005-09. In 2007, Kevin Robinson led the NCAA with 18.9 yards per punt return. He also coached cornerback Jarrett Bush to first team All-WAC honors in 2005 and safety Terrance Washington to freshman All-America honors in 2004.

Montana State hired Rushing for his first full time assistant coaching position in 2000, serving as the secondary coach through the 2003 season. In his four seasons, the Bobcast twice won the Big Sky Conference championship. They also twice led the league for total defense and pass efficiency defense. Rushing coached Kane Ioane to four-time All-America honors as well as Big Sky Player of the year as a senior. Additionally, Rushing developed Joey Thomas into two-time all-league honors.

Rushing's Division I coaching career began in 1998, when he joined Dirk Koetter's staff as a graduate assistant at Boise State. In 1999, the Broncos won 10 games en route to their first Big West championship, and defeated Louisville in the Humanitarian Bowl. They accomplished the same feats the following season, ending the season with a Humanitarian Bowl victory over UTEP.

Before his time in Boise, Rushing coached cornerbacks at Willamette College from 1996-98. Previously, he began his coaching career as a defensive backs and special teams coach at Merced Union High School.

In his career at Washington State, Rushing set the Cougar record for starts (46) and ranks in the top 10 for career tackles (343). He was named a Sporting News All-American in 1991 and 1992, while earning Pac-10 All-Conference honorable mention honors in 1992 and 1994.

Rushing went on to play professionally in both the Canadian Football League and the NFL. He started with the Birmingham Barracudas in 1995, was with the Dallas Cowboys in 1996 and concluding his professional career with the Edmonton Eskimos (1997).

A native of Merced, Calif., Rushing has a sociology degree from Washington State University (1996) and a master's in education from Boise State (2005). He and his wife Angela have four children, including Angel, Tatiana, Nataya, Kamiah and John.

CHUCK CECIL

Senior Defensive Analyst

Year at Arizona: 2nd

One of the most revered players in program history, Chuck Cecil returns for his second season on staff at Arizona as the senior defensive analyst.

A 15-year coaching veteran in the National Football League, Cecil stepped aside from on-field coaching duties and joined the Wildcats for the 2017 season. He was retained by new head coach Kevin Sumlin in January of 2018. His role includes assisting Sumlin and the defensive staff in areas of overall organization, scouting, film breakdown, analysis and other game preparation responsibilities.

A two-time First Team Academic All-America selection (1986-87), Cecil played for Arizona from 1984 to 1987, first under the late Larry Smith and then under former head coach Dick Tomey for his final year. He began as a recruited walk-on from Helix High School in San Diego, Calif., and finished his UA career as one of the Pac-10's noted and fearless safeties before later being inducted in the College Football Hall of Fame in 2009.

A consensus All-American in 1987, Cecil was the Aloha Bowl MVP and a two-time first-team all-conference selection, plus earned second-team honors as a sophomore. He was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 and Pac-10 Player of the Week on three occasions.

Off the field Cecil was a three-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection and culminated his education as a recipient of the NCAA VI Award, one of the nation's top scholar-athlete citations. He was named Arizona's male winner of the Pac-10 Conference Medal.
Cecil finished his UA career with the then No. 1 mark in passes defended, 38, which currently is second to Michael Jolivette's 44 from 2000 to 2003. He led the Wildcats with 80 solo tackles his senior year and also posted the school record that season with four interceptions at Stanford.

Today, Cecil still ranks No. 7 on Arizona's all-time tackles chart with a total of 392. Additionally, he holds the Arizona career record with 21 interceptions and among those returned one 100 yards for a touchdown against Arizona State in 1986, a play that likely rests atop many UA partisans' choice as the single-most electrifying and revered moment in UA football history.

After his storied collegiate career, Cecil was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the fourth round of the 1988 NFL Draft. He played in Green Bay through the 1992 season, before moving on to the Phoenix Cardinals in 1993 and later the Houston Oilers for the 1995 season. The safety finished a seven-year professional career with 461 tackles, 16 interceptions and one touchdown.

Cecil accepted his first professional coaching job in 2001 with Jeff Fisher and the Tennessee Titans, where he served as a defensive assistant and quality control coach for three seasons. He was promoted to coach the safeties and nickelbacks from 2004-06, before taking over as defensive backs coach in the 2007-08 seasons. Later, Cecil was named defensive coordinator for the Titans in 2009-10. The next stop in Cecil's career took him to St. Louis, again working under Fisher. Cecil was the Rams' secondary coach for five seasons.

Cecil is married to Carrie Gerlach Cecil, a native Arizonan who has established a successful communications career creating literary, television, film, online, business and live content. The couple met in their time at UA and have one daughter, Charli. They are heavily involved in community service, including hosting the Cecil Family Golden Hour Golf Classic for the UMC Level One Trauma Center in Tucson, Arizona and raise monies for Eve's Angels, and Ordinary Hero, among other organizations.

MIKE DIANGELO

Football Analyst

Year at Arizona: 5th

Mike DiAngelo begins his fifth season at Arizona, including his second as a defensive analyst under coordinator Marcel Yates. Previously, DiAngelo was a defensive graduate assistant for the Wildcats for three years. Before arriving in 2013, DiAngelo coached six seasons at Washington and Jefferson College, serving a variety of assistant coaching roles. He was a four-year member of the Baldwin-Wallace football program (2002-05) and two-year starting quarterback.

DAVY GNODLE

Football Analyst

Year at Arizona: 3rd

Davy Gnodle is now in his third season with the Wildcats, but first as a defensive analyst. His previous contributions came in 2016-17 on the defensive side of the ball as a graduate assistant where he worked with the defensive line and outside linebackers. Prior to UA, Gnodle coached at a pair of California high schools. He played linebacker at El Camino College in the 2005 and 2007 seasons, before earning a scholarship at Texas Southern University.

HAROLD GOODWIN

Football Analyst

Year at Arizona: 1st

Harold Goodwin enters his first season on staff at Arizona, returning to the collegiate ranks for the first time since 2003. Goodwin spent the last 11 seasons on the staff of Bruce Arians in the NFL (Pittsburgh, Indianapolis and Arizona), including as offensive coordinator of the Cardinals from 2013-17. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Michigan (1995-97), with full time assignments at Eastern Michigan (1998-99) and Central Michigan (2000-03).

GREG PATRICK

Football Analyst

Year at Arizona: 1st

Greg Patrick begins his first season at Arizona after working in a similar capacity on Kevin Sumlin's staff in 2017. Patrick graduated from Brown University, where he was a two-time All-Ivy League selection and a Division I-AA All-American in 1990. He played professionally for six seasons, including in the NFL with Detroit, before a successful high school coaching career in Arizona. He helped Valley Christian High School to a state title in 2005 and Chaparral High School to the 2011 championship.

TERRENCE MILLER

Graduate Assistant

Year at Arizona: 2nd

Terrence Miller returns for his second season on staff after entering the coaching ranks as an offensive graduate assistant in 2017. Miller played receiver and tight end for the Wildcats from 2009-13 under head coaches Mike Stoops and Rich Rodriguez. He hauled in 95 receptions for 1,117 yards and three touchdowns in his career. He was a team captain in 2013.

Polian comes to Tucson following two seasons as Texas A&M's Associate AD and Director of Player Personnel after serving in a variety of administrative roles in professional football over the previous decade.

Polian arrived at Texas A&M from the Tennessee Titans where he served as a pro scout, football administrator and special assistant to head coach over the past five years. Prior to working with the Titans, Polian served in similar roles with the Indianapolis Colts and the Minnesota Vikings, including as the Super Bowl XLI team coordinator for the Colts in 2007.

Polian moved to the NFL after a year with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League where he served initially as the running backs coach and director of quality control and later as the assistant general manager from 2008-09. He also served as the director of team services with the Arena Football League from 2007-08.

He had a two-year stint with Tulane University from 2006-07 where he began as the director of football operations and later served as assistant director of athletics with oversight of sports services, including football administrative planning, equipment and coaches video management. He was also involved in Tulane athletic department's Hurricane Katrina action plan.

He moved to Tulane from Columbia University where he served as assistant athletic director for football operations and special projects from 2004-05.

From 2003-04, Polian served as the corporate sales and client services manager for the Arena Football League.

He began his career in athletics in event operations at Boston College from 1999-2001 where he served as a game operations manager for various revenue events, including football, men's and women's basketball and hockey.

Polian, whose brother, Brian, served on Kevin Sumlin's first coaching staff at Texas A&M, is a 1999 graduate of Villanova University with a bachelor's degree in political science and he earned his master's in adminstrative studies from Boston College in 2001.

BEN KERR

Director of Football Operations

Year at Arizona: 2nd

Ben Kerr is in his second season at Arizona after arriving as an assistant director of operations in the fall of 2017. In his role, Kerr oversees all day-to-day operations of the football program. Previously, Kerr was an assistant director of operations at William & Mary for the 2015-16 seasons. He joined the Tribe after serving as an operations assistant and intern at his alma mater, Penn State, in 2015-16.

ANDY VAUGHN

Senior Director of Recruiting

ROBERT C. ROBBINS, M.D.

President, The University of Arizona
Second Year
22nd UA President

Dr. Robert C. Robbins says he landed his dream job when he assumed his position as the 22nd president of the University of Arizona on June 1, 2017. A year into his tenure, he is even more excited for the future of the university and its role in Arizona and the region.

After spending his first few months meeting students, faculty, staff, alumni and elected officials across the state, country, and internationally, Robbins launched a strategic planning process with an aim to make the UA the world's leading university in the Fourth Industrial Revolution, a convergence of physical, biological, and digital technologies that he sees as the most important context for the UA and our students' future success.

He says the UA's team is the key to creating and implementing the plan. "After I was named president and moved to Tucson, I started making visits to campus when I could talk with students, faculty, staff and even visitors on an informal basis, and I found out that the community of people who live and work here make the UA really special," said President Robbins. Often quoted using sports analogies, Robbins said, "We have an incredible team of champions and — as I've said — I want to help create a championship team." He has spent much of his first year building a leadership team that will make this goal possible, appointing new leaders in Health Sciences, Academic Affairs, Research and Discovery, and Marketing and Communications. President Robbins' priorities as the strategic plan comes into view include ensuring a first-class student experience, leadership in health sciences teaching and research, enhanced marketing and branding, and taking advantage of the UA's unique strengths because of its history of serving Arizona and the greater Southwest. This approach, he says, will raise the UA among the world's best public universities, positioning the state for global leadership. "We will strengthen existing relationships and build new collaborations to take the University of Arizona to even higher levels of achievement, working to solve the 21st century's most complex, global challenges."

When asked what UA alumni can do to assist him in making the University of Arizona an even greater presence, President Robbins is quick to answer. "Be engaged. I am struck by how deeply and strongly our alumni feel connected to their UA experience."

Before joining UA, Robbins served as president and CEO of the Texas Medical Center (TMC) in Houston from 2012 to 2017. In this role, he significantly enhanced TMC's commitment to collaboration, introducing five cross-institutional research initiatives centered on innovation, genomics, regenerative medicine, health policy and clinical research.

Prior to his time in Houston, Dr. Robbins served as professor and chairman of the Department of Cardiothoracic Surgery at Stanford University School of Medicine, founding director of the Stanford Cardiovascular Institute, president of the International Society of Heart and Lung Transplantation, president of the Western Thoracic Surgical Association, president of the American Heart Association Western States Affiliate, president of the Bay Area Society of Thoracic Surgeons, and chair of the American Heart Association Cardiovascular Surgery and Anesthesia Council, among other roles. In 2016 he served as president of the American Heart Association Southwest Affiliate.

An internationally recognized cardiac surgeon, Robbins has focused his clinical efforts on acquired cardiac diseases with a special expertise in the surgical treatment of congestive heart failure and cardiothoracic transplantation. His research work includes the investigation of stem cells for cardiac regeneration, cardiac transplant allograft vasculopathy, bioengineered blood vessels, and automated vascular anastomotic devices. Robbins is the author of more than 300 peer-reviewed articles and a former guest editor of the Circulation Surgical Supplement.

In addition to his role as University president, Robbins is also a member of several community Board of Directors, including the Arizona Commerce Authority, Southern Arizona Leadership Council, Tucson Metro Chamber of Commerce, United Way of Tucson and Southern Arizona, and the Greater Phoenix Economic Council. He is also a member of the Chairman's Circle of Sun Corridor, Inc., and a member of Greater Phoenix Leadership. While at TMC, Robbins also served on the Houston branch of the Dallas Federal Reserve board, the board of directors of the Welch Foundation, and the American Heart Association Southwest Affiliate in 2016. He served on an independent blue ribbon committee to evaluate the Veterans Affairs health system, and the World Affairs Council of Greater Houston honored him as the 2016 International Citizen of the Year.

His educational background includes a B.S. in chemistry from Millsaps College, medical degree from the University of Mississippi, general surgical training at the University of Mississippi, cardiothoracic training at Stanford University, postdoctoral research at Columbia University and the National Institutes of Health, and congenital heart surgical fellowships at Emory University and Royal Children's Hospital.

DAVE HEEKE

Vice President & Director, Athletics
Second Year

Dave Heekes in his second year as the Director of Athletics, continuing an extensive 30-year career that has encompassed all aspects of the field including 11 years as the Athletics Director at Central Michigan University.

Heeke (pronounced Hee-key) was named Arizona's 13th Director of Athletics in February of 2017 and officially started in that role on April 1, 2017.

Heeke has developed a wide-ranging understanding of college athletics that includes a number of vital roles. He has experience in department leadership, budget development, fundraising, compliance and sport supervision, among other areas. Heeke has also been heavily involved in facilities master planning and funding, as well as university and external relations.

While Athletics Director at CMU, Heeke instilled his vision of a "Championship Culture," which included athletic success, academic excellence, national media exposure, record fundraising, and a commitment to facilities. The department was twice honored with the Cartwright Award, which recognizes the Mid-American Conference's top overall institution based on excellence in academics, athletics and citizenship. CMU earned the Reese Trophy, which honors the top MAC men's athletic program, three times, and finished as the runner-up for the Jacoby Trophy, which honors the top MAC women's athletic program, four times under Heeke's leadership. In addition, the football program won three MAC titles and qualified for bowl games in eight of his 11 years, while both men's and women's basketball programs won conference championships.

Heeke is a nationally recognized leader among college athletics directors. He was appointed to the NCAA Division I Athletic Director Advisory Group in June of 2013. One of just 11 Division I Athletic Directors nationwide to be selected for the appointment, the group meets periodically with NCAA President Mark Emmert and his staff to provide feedback and perspective on issues affecting DI athletics. Heeke has also been a member of the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee and the Division I Football Issues Committee. He twice served on the baseball committee, first from 2006-08 and again from 2010-15, serving as the chair for the 2014-15 season. He was also a part of the football committee from 2008-13, serving as chair in 2012-13.

During Heeke's 18 years at the University of Oregon, he assisted the athletics director with the daily operation of the Ducks' overall athletic budget and 17 sports. Heeke served on the AD's executive staff and was responsible for strategic planning and financial models. In addition to representing the AD at University and conference meetings, he managed all facets of internal operations, while being responsible for revenue generation through external operations units. He assisted in the $95 million football stadium expansion as well as the construction of a $14 million football practice facility and a $5 million soccer stadium.

An East Lansing, Mich., native, Heeke received a bachelor's degree from Albion College in 1985 and a master's degree from Ohio State University in 1987. At Albion, he was a co-captain of the baseball team and a member of the club hockey team. He was a three-sport athlete at East Lansing High School and received the Distinguished Alumni Award from the East Lansing Educational Foundation in 2007.

Heeke and his wife, Liz, have three boys, Ryan, Max and Zach.

IT'S ALWAYS BEEN ABOUT TOMORROW
Universities are defined by their people. University of Arizona Wildcats dream, play and obsess about a better everything. For everyone.

Change is happening faster than ever in human history. It's up to us to shape this change through great discoveries and advances in health, urbanization, space exploration, communication, cybersecurity and other areas. We develop collaborative and creative problem solvers — people who think from a societal and scientific perspective. Those who have the ability to design, build, analyze, adapt and succeed.

Rich in history and tradition dating back to 1885, the University is on the cutting edge of education, discovery and impact. We are the state's land-grant university and honor our threefold commitment to education, research and community service. Arizona has been named one of the top colleges in the country by The Princeton Review. Forbes ranks Arizona as the No. 1 university in the state.

OUR STORIES: We only see opportunity
Our position in the planetary sciences today has much to do with the vision and drive of planetary astronomer Gerard P. Kuiper. Kuiper is known as the father of planetary science, but during his time was a little bit of an outcast in his field.

Kuiper proposed there was a belt of small planets or comets orbiting beyond Neptune, even though none except Pluto had been found. Astronomers now refer to this region as the Kuiper belt. Today, the University has been part of every major planetary mission with NASA.

Beyond curious
Each year, cardiac arrest kills about 326,000 people in the United States, yet traditional CPR only offers a 7.8 percent survival rate.

In the early 1990s, UA cardiologist Dr. Gordon Ewy listened to a 911 recording of a woman giving her husband CPR. When he heard the woman ask the dispatcher why her husband opened his eyes when she pressed his chest but went to sleep when she did mouth-to-mouth, he developed chest-compression-only CPR, nearly doubling survival rates.

Driven by our history
When President Kennedy said the U.S. will put a man on the moon, NASA called us because we were the only ones who understood the lunar surface.

Today, our country is looking to shape the future of medicine. Certain medicines work for some people but not for others. Why? And since genes, the environment and lifestyle can predict the diseases we're susceptible to, we must create individualized and preventative medicine.

The University of Arizona Health Sciences (UAHS) and Banner Health have received a $9 million award from the National Institutes of Health for the All of Us Research Program, which is expected to total $60 million over the next five years, making this the largest NIH award in Arizona history. This landmark effort aims to improve health outcomes and fuel development of new treatments for disease. It will also catalyze a new era of evidence-based, precise preventive care and medical treatment options.

In touch with our values
When we say people are our strength, we mean it. In 2018 we earned the designation of Hispanic-Serving Institution from the U.S. Department of Education for our enrollment of Hispanic students and dedication to providing access to top educational opportunities.

We serve the entire state. When farmers don't know what is hurting their crops, or city planners are dealing with the future of water, they rely on our statewide network of knowledgeable staff to help solve their problems.

Wildcats for Life
The Arizona Alumni Association connects, engages and inspires Wildcats for Life. More than 260,000 former UA students live throughout the 50 U.S. states and more than 150 countries.

Arizona Wildcats the world over share a mutual understanding of the motto Bear Down. Before UA student body president and revered football quarterback John "Button" Salmon died in 1926, his last words to his teammates were, "Tell them ... tell the team to bear down." Whether it's academics, athletics or research, we've adopted the stance that when the going gets tough, the tough #BearDown.

The Pac-12 Conference

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Pac-12 Conference renewed its undisputed claim as the Conference of Champions® in 2017-18. Beyond the courts and fields, the Pac-12's accomplishments extend into the classrooms across 12 campuses, and outside its traditional geographic footprint into new corners around the world.

The only conference to win 500 NCAA Championships, the Pac-12 once again led the nation in 2017-18 with 12 NCAA crowns. This haul adds to an incredible 175 NCAA team titles claimed since 1999-2000 and 317 since 1981-82, the start of women's sports sponsorship, an average of over nine per year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 52 of the last 58 years, the only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third in 1998-99 and 2004-05.

For the 13th-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most, or tied for the most, NCAA titles of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so 10 times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning over a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 has claimed 513 NCAA Championships (300 men's, 183 women's, 30 combined), over 200 more than the next league.

Pac-12 members have won 300 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 83 more than the next-closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools, 54 tennis titles, 47 outdoor track & field crowns, and 29 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 48 NCAA titles in volleyball, 44 of 49 in water polo, 30 in skiing, and 24 in swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions. Over 2,000 (2,334) individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years with 1,370 by male student-athletes. Student-athletes have also captured 186 individual titles at combined championships (i.e., skiing and fencing).

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 37 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 27 occasions, including a current streak of 18-consecutive years, dating back to 2000. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 183 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 100. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 24 tennis crowns, 15 volleyball titles, 19 of the last 29 trophies in golf, and 16 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 778 NCAA individual crowns, an average of over 21 championships per season, including 29 in 2017-18.

The Pac-12's excellence is further proven in the annual Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD won an unprecedented 24th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2017-18 to lead the Conference, leading a 1-2-4 finish for Pac-12 institutions. Five Pac-12 member institutions ranked among the top-25 Division I programs: No. 1 STANFORD, No. 2 UCLA, No. 4 USC, No. 19 CALIFORNIA and No. 24 OREGON. At least five member institutions have been ranked in the top 25 each of the Directors' Cup program, with seven appearing in the top 20 on five different occasions (1998, 2001, 2003, 2005 and 2006).

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Brandon Dawkins accounted for three touchdowns and Arizona ran for 506 yards to open the season with a 62-24 victory over Northern Arizona on Saturday night.

Arizona struggled to slow the FCS Lumberjacks and sputtered on offense in the first quarter before coming alive.

Shun Brown sparked the Wildcats with a 66-yard punt return for a touchdown and Dawkins got their offense going with his arm and his legs. The junior ran for 92 yards and two touchdowns on seven carries, and threw for 89 yards and a score to help the Wildcats win their 17th straight home opener.

Arizona had six different players score rushing touchdowns and fell just short of the school record of 511 yards rushing set in the 2016 season finale against Arizona State.

Case Cookus threw for 306 yards on 21-of-38 passing for Northern Arizona, but also had three turnovers. Cory Young ran for 115 yards and two scores.

The Lumberjacks had a rough trip to Tucson two years ago, losing 77-13 as Arizona set school records for points, total yards (792) and rushing yards (499).

Northern Arizona was much better defensively at the start and had no trouble moving the ball against Arizona's young defense. The Lumberjacks broke off several long plays, including Young's 58-yard touchdown run, and outgained the Wildcats in the first half.

The problem was turnovers.

Cookus lost a fumble when he was blindsided in the first quarter, setting up Wilson's 46-yard touchdown run .

Cookus later tried to squeeze a pass into coverage near the end zone that was picked off by Demetrius Flannigan-Fowles at the 1-yard line. Flannigan-Fowles had another pick late in the half, setting up a 10-yard scoring run by Dawkins that put Arizona up 34-14 at halftime.

Dawkins raced off for a 66-yard touchdown to open the second half and Arizona's defense, which gave up 203 yards in the first quarter, slowed the Lumberjacks before allowing a couple of late scores with the game out of reach.

THE TAKEAWAY

Northern Arizona proved it can move the ball on offense, but can't afford the turnovers, particularly against an FBS team.

Arizona did what it was supposed to against an FCS school, but there are still questions on defense.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• Arizona rushed for 506 yards, the second-highest total in school history. The Wildcats rushed for 511 yards against Arizona State in the 2016 season finale to establish a new school record. The 506 rushing yards gained Saturday night against Northern Arizona are the most ever in a nonconference game.

• Arizona managed to crack the 500-yard mark without a 100-yard individual rusher. The Wildcats' leading rusher was quarterback Brandon Dawkins, who rushed for 92 yards and two touchdowns on seven carries. Nick Wilson added 87 yards on eight carries.

• The Wildcats have rushed for 1,017 yards over their past two games, which is the highest two-game total in program history. Arizona had never had a 500-yard rushing game until the 2016 season finale.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — After the Houston Cougars had to deal with a hurricane and devastating flooding in their home city, they finally got back to playing football Saturday night.

And gave Major Applewhite his first victory as a head coach.

Ex-Texas A&M quarterback Kyle Allen threw for 225 yards and a touchdown but was intercepted twice in his first game for Houston and the Cougars had to hold on to beat Arizona 19-16 in their week-delayed season opener.

"I'm really, really proud of our players. They've been through a lot," Applewhite said. "Fortunately, not many were affected by the flood but just the circumstances of being 19, 20, 21, 22 years old, just all the stuff they've been dealing with."

John Leday's 81-yard kickoff return set up Houston's go-ahead touchdown with 45 seconds left in the first half.
Josh Pollack kicked three field goals for Arizona (1-1), the last, from 42, yards cut the lead to 19-16 with 8:32 to play.

Khalil Tate replaced Arizona quarterback Brandon Dawkins early in the fourth quarter and the Wildcats were at the Houston 32 when Garrett Davis' interception with 3:49 remaining preserved the win.

Dawkins, who returned for the final three minutes, fumbled the ball away twice, one for a safety, in the second half.

Arizona coach Rich Rodriguez said Dawkins "got a little nicked up. I am not going to elaborate. I'm not a doctor."

Asked how Dawkins played, Rodriguez said, "I don't know if anybody offensively played really well. I'll have to watch the film. It wasn't our best effort."

Allen, one of the nation's top recruits from suburban Phoenix in 2013, started 14 games and played in 20 for Texas A&M before transferring to Houston. He sat out last season as a redshirt. He said he didn't find out until Saturday that he would start.

"I've waited a year and a half, two years and it was just really good to get back out there," he said, "with a new squad, with a lot of guys I'm really close with, a lot of guys I trust a lot and really care about."

Allen said the issues that led to the interceptions are easily correctable.

Applewhite said he thought Allen "did fine."

"It was good to see him play," Applewhite said. "I hadn't seen him play in two years."

Rodriguez said his defense played better than it did a week ago against Northern Arizona.

Allen, who completed 25 of 32 passes, threw 49 yards to Keith Corbin to set up his first TD pass as a Cougar, five yards to Linell Bonner to put Houston up 10-3 with five minutes left in the half.

Arizona, helped by a pass interference penalty in the end zone, tied it 10-10 on Zach Green's 1-yard run 2:22 before halftime.

Leday took the subsequent kickoff and the last man who had a chance to stop him, Kwesi Mashack, tackled him at the Wildcats 16. Dillon Birden's 3-yard touchdown run with 45 seconds gave Houston its 17-10 halftime lead.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• Arizona rushed for 152 yards in Saturday's loss, marking the eighth straight game the Wildcats have rushed for 150 or more yards in a game. The last time Arizona failed to hit the 150-yard mark on the ground was against Utah in the sixth game of the 2016 season when Arizona rushed for 127 yards.

• Arizona's three leading tacklers Saturday night were all freshmen. True freshmen Tony Fields II and Scottie Young Jr., combined for 17 tackles. Fields led the way with 10 and Young had seven. Redshirt freshman Lorenzo Burns also had seven tackles in the loss.

• The 10 tackles by Tony Fields II were the most by an Arizona true freshman since cornerback Jace Whittaker had 11 stops against Colorado in 2015.

EL PASO, TEXAS (AP) — Brandon Dawkins scored six touchdowns -- three passing and three rushing -- to lead Arizona to a 63-16 win over UTEP on Friday night.

Dawkins, who played only one series in the fourth quarter, threw for 155 yards on 18-of-22 passing and ran for 143 yards on 13 carries.

Arizona came into the game as a 25-point favorite, but struggled in the first quarter against winless UTEP before scoring 28 unanswered points.

The Wildcats (2-1) scored on the first play of the second quarter when Dawkins found freshman J.J. Taylor for 2-yard TD on fourth-and-goal, capping a 12-play, 78-yard drive. Dawkins connected with Shun Brown on a 36-yard touchdown pass followed by a 5-yard Dawkins TD run three minutes later to push the lead to 28-0.

After UTEP (0-3) scored on a pass from Zack Greenlee to Tyler Batson with 2:50 remaining in the half, Dawkins scored his fourth touchdown on a 3-yard run as the Wildcats scored 35 second-quarter points to take a 35-9 lead.
It was the first points allowed by the Wildcats in three quarters after holding Houston scoreless in the second half last week.

Arizona continued its offensive onslaught in the third, scoring two more touchdowns -- on Dawkins' 13-yard run and Bryce Wolma's catch.

"It just came down to execution," Dawkins said. "We executed a lot better, I executed a lot better and that's the kind of result you're going to get."

UTEP scored its lone second-half touchdown on Mark Torrez's 6-yard run in the third and Arizona closed with 21 unanswered points.

Arizona coach Rich Rodriguez was impressed with how Dawkins came back from last week's loss to Houston.
"He showed me that he is the competitor I thought he always was," Rodriguez said. "That's one thing that will not change about Brandon. He is a competitive guy. He played well, he did a nice job and bailed us out a couple of times."

THE TAKEAWAY

Arizona: How young are the Wildcats? Arizona has played 24 freshman, including 14 true freshman, in the first three games.

UTEP: The Miners, out of Conference USA, began the season with three straight losses for the first time since 2008. UTEP has now lost 13 straight to Arizona.

UP NEXT

Arizona: The Wildcats host Pac-12 South rival Utah next Friday in the conference opener for both teams.

UTEP: The Miners will play at New Mexico State on Sept. 22nd.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• Redshirt junior quarterback Brandon Dawkins finished 18 of 22 through the air for 155 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed for 143 yards on 13 carries and three more rushing touchdowns.

• The three passing touchdowns mark a career high for Dawkins. His previous high was two set in 2015 at Arizona State. His three rushing touchdowns tie his career record, which was set last year against Hawaii. The six total touchdowns are also a career high for Dawkins.

• Shun Brown returned a 63-yard punt for a touchdown in the second quarter Friday for his second punt return touchdown of the season. He's the first Wildcat to have multiple punt returns for touchdowns since Mike Thomas in 2008. Thomas had 29 returns in 2008 for 392 yards, returning two for touchdowns.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — When Utah quarterback Tyler Huntley went down with a shoulder injury in the second quarter, the Utes had an experienced and reliable alternative ready.

Troy Williams, a senior who started 13 games last season, came on and guided the No. 23 Utes to a 30-24 victory over Arizona on Friday night in the Pac-12 opener for both schools.

"We're in a good place quarterback-wise," Utah coach Kyle Whittingham said. "Obviously we want Tyler back as soon as possible, but Troy won nine games for us last year, and he was ready."

Not that was easy.

Chris Hart recovered Arizona quarterback Brandon Dawkins' fumble at Utah's 20-yard line with 2:33 left to preserve the victory.

Wildcats coach Rich Rodriguez didn't think it was a fumble.

But, Dawkins said, "You've got to go with what the refs call and that's what they called. I shouldn't have made it close. I should have held the ball a little tighter and not let them get a late strip there. So that's on me regardless."

Utah (4-0) led throughout and was up 30-17 late in the fourth quarter, but Dawkins threw a 30-yard TD pass to Tony Ellison with 2:44 to play, cutting the lead to six. The subsequent onside kick attempt bounced downfield, and Arizona's Shawn Poindexter recovered at the Utes' 35.

On the next play, Dawkins ran 15 yards to the 20 but fumbled, and Hart recovered.

The Wildcats (2-2) committed five turnovers, including three interceptions by Dawkins.

Utah scored a touchdown on its first possession, and then Arizona twice cut the lead to three -- the last time at 20-17 on J.J. Taylor's 7-yard TD run with 4:38 left in the third quarter.

But 2 1/2 minutes later, with Arizona deep in its own territory, Dawkins threw short over the middle and Javelin Guidry intercepted, returning it 14 yards for a touchdown that made it 27-17.

Huntley completed 8 of 9 passes for 98 yards before he left with an injured shoulder after being sacked by Tony Fields with 8:45 left in the half.

Taylor fumbled at Utah's 1-yard line in the second quarter, and the Utes drove all the way to the Wildcats 8. Six plays into the long drive, Huntley was injured and Williams -- who started 13 games last season -- took over. On his first play, Williams connected on a 40-yard pass to Darren Carrington, helping to set up one of Matt Gay's three field goals, this one from 26 yards, to put the Utes up 13-3 with 5:39 left in the half.

"I prepare like I'm the starter every week," Williams said. "I'm working hard every day. When my number is called I make sure I'm ready to go in. (The play) got me into things. Got me in a groove a little bit. I wanted to play smart football. I didn't want to force anything."

Utah grabbed a quick 7-0 lead on its first possession with a six-play, 73-yard scoring drive. Huntley threw 8 yards to Samson Nacua for the touchdown.

After Gay's second field goal, Arizona answered. Wide receiver Shun Brown gained 22 yards on an end around to ignite an 11-play, 75-yard drive. Dawkins scored from 1-yard out, and Utah's lead was down to 13-10 at the half.

In the third quarter, Williams passed 37 yards to Demari Simpkins to the Arizona 2 to set up Sunia Tauteoli's 1-yard touchdown run, stretching Utah's lead to 20-10 with 9:46 left in the quarter.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• Arizona rushed for exactly 200 rushing yards Friday against Utah. Dating back to last season, Arizona has rushed for 150 or more yards in 10 straight games. It's the longest streak since Arizona rushed for 150 or more in 11 straight over the final eight games of 2013 and the first three of 2014. Arizona has rushed for 200 or more yards in three of four games this season.

• The Wildcats allowed just 112 rushing yards Friday night, which is the fewest allowed against a conference opponent since Colorado rushed for 94 yards against Arizona in 2014.

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — The Colorado coach had a simple request after the game.

"Could someone please tackle No. 14 for Arizona?" Mike MacIntyre said.

Too late. He's already gone.

Backup Khalil Tate rushed for 327 yards, an FBS record by a quarterback, and accounted for five touchdowns to help Arizona hold off Colorado 45-42 on Saturday night.

Tate entered the game after Brandon Dawkins took a late hit out of bounds on the opening drive. Dawkins stood on the sideline for the rest of the game with his helmet in his hand as Tate flawlessly orchestrated the offense.

The speedy Tate had TD runs of 58, 28, 47 and 75 yards. He also threw for 142 yards, including a 13-yard TD pass to Shun Brown, as the Wildcats (3-2, 1-1 Pac-12) won at Folsom Field for a third straight time on a night when both offenses combined for 1,118 total yards.

Tate was hardly touched all night -- if at all. Asked if he was tackled, he grinned and responded: "A couple of times."

He's been previously hampered by a sprained shoulder. Once in the game -- and back to 100 percent -- Tate quickly made up for lost time by breaking the record by a QB on his final run of the evening -- a 31-yard scamper that also sealed the win. The mark was held by Northern Illinois' Jordan Lynch, who gained 321 yards rushing on Nov. 26, 2013.

What's more, it was the second-most ever in Arizona history. The Wildcats' record for yards rushing in a game is held by Ka'Deem Carey, who gained 366 in 2012 against Colorado. Tate averaged 23.4 yards on 14 carries.

"We didn't even know his number, to be quite honest," Colorado defensive back Ryan Moeller said.

The Buffaloes certainly do now.

"He should be national player of the week," MacIntyre said. "He's a phenomenal player."

Phillip Lindsay sparked the offense for Colorado (3-3, 0-3) with a career-high 281 yards rushing and three touchdowns on a school-record 41 carries.

Colorado was its own worst enemy in dropping a third straight conference game. The Buffaloes committed 12 penalties for 110 yards, including two late hits.

Despite all that, Colorado trailed 45-42 after Lindsay's 11-yard TD run with 5:04 remaining. But Tate picked up a big third-down conversion with his arm -- an 8-yard strike to Bryce Wolma -- and then clinched the game with his long third-down run with just over a minute remaining.

Tate was modest after his performance.

"Offense did a great job blocking," he said. "Receivers did a great job getting open."

Dawkins was momentarily dinged after taking a late hit out of bounds that was announced on linebacker Drew Lewis. He was looked at by the trainer as Tate jogged into the game. It was difficult to even entertain the notion of bringing Dawkins back in, though, given the way Tate was playing.

"After his fourth time out there," MacIntyre said of Tate, "I said, `I don't know if we're ever going to get this kid down.'
"He was just dynamic."

Despite the loss, it was a memorable night for Lindsay, who became the school's career leader in all-purpose yards with a run in the third quarter. He now has 4,989 yards to surpass Rodney Stewart's mark of 4,828 set from 2008-11.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• Sophomore quarterback Khalil Tate rushed for 327 yards on 14 carries to establish a new FBS rushing record by a quarterback. Tate surpassed Northern Illinois' Jordan Lynch, who held the record previously with 321 yards, set in 2013.

• Tate averaged 23.4 yards per carry and scored four rushing touchdowns. The 23.4 yard per carry average establishes a new school record for at least 10 carries in a game. Trung Canidate held the previous record at 16 yards per carry. Tate is the fifth player in school history to rush for four touchdowns in a game.

• Tate became the first quarterback in Arizona history to rush for 200 or more yards in a game. He's the 20th player total in school history to eclipse the 200-yard mark and first since Jared Baker rushed for 207 yards on 23 carries at Colorado in 2015. His 327 yards are the second highest total in school history behind Ka'Deem Carey's 366 yards set against Colorado in 2012.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Khalil Tate proved he wasn't a one-game wonder, giving the Arizona Wildcats another Saturday of big plays and another win.

Tate followed up last week's record-setting performance with another strong one, rushing for 230 yards and two touchdowns to lead Arizona over UCLA 47-30.

The sophomore quarterback, who took over for the injured Brandon Dawkins early in last Saturday's win over Colorado, set an FBS single-game rushing record for a quarterback with 327 yards in that game. Tate got the start on Saturday, and ran for a 45-yard touchdown on the fourth play of the game.

"Being more knowledgeable and the offensive line blocking the way they do, the receivers staying patient, it helps a lot," Tate said of his comfort level with the offense.

He added a 71-yard touchdown run in the third quarter for a 40-22 Arizona lead. The Wildcats had a season-high 605 total yards.

Tate passed for 148 yards, including a 53-yard bomb to Shun Brown that set up Nick Wilson's one-yard touchdown run late in the first quarter.

Wilson finished with 135 rushing yards and two scores. He has 13 career 100-yard games.

Tate hit Trevor Wood for a six-yard score with 11 seconds left in the first half, giving the Wildcats a 30-14 halftime lead.

"We did just enough with the turnovers (forcing four by UCLA) to give the offense a chance," Arizona head coach Rich Rodriguez said. "Just really proud of the way he (Tate) has kind of taken charge. When we needed a big play ... he was delivering."

UCLA's Josh Rosen, the nation's leader in passing yards and total offense entering the game, threw for 219 yards but was held without a TD pass for the first time since the 2015 season. His three interceptions hurt the Bruins, the first was picked off by Jace Whittaker in the end zone early in the second quarter and the second was returned 42 yards for a touchdown by Whittaker, also in the second.

The Wildcats sacked Rosen five times in the second half, four for freshman Kylan Wilborn.

"I just didn't play well at all," Rosen said.

Tate's 26-yard run set up Josh Pollack's second field goal of the game and gave Arizona 33-14 lead in the third quarter.

The Bruins cut the lead to 11, but Tate turned a broken play into his 71-yarder at the 3:36 mark of the third.

"That young man is dynamic," UCLA coach Jim Mora said. "He changes the game because you have to defend him on every play. ... We put all our energy into stopping him, and we didn't get it done."

UCLA got as close as 10 after Bolu Olorunfunmi's second touchdown run of the night late in the third. But the Bruins couldn't keep the Wildcats from adding to their lead.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• Sophomore quarterback Khalil Tate ran for 230 yards and two touchdowns on 15 carries Saturday night against UCLA. It's the sixth-best rushing performance in school history. Tate ran for 327 yards last week against Colorado, which is the second-best rushing performance in school history. Tate joins Ka'Deem Carey as the only players in school history to have two games of 230 or more rushing yards.

• Tate has rushed for 557 yards over the last two games, which is the second-highest total in school history. Ka'Deem Carey ran for 570 yards against Colorado and Utah in back-to-back games in 2012.

• Tate is the first FBS quarterback to rush for 200 or more yards in back-to-back games since Navy's Chris McCoy in 1997.

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Arizona running back Zach Green couldn't bring himself to watch California's two-point conversion attempt in overtime and instead stared at his helmet.

Tight end Bryce Wolma tried to look away, too, but forced himself to take a peek -- just in time to see freshman linebacker Colin Schooler's game-saving deflection.

"I was looking at the scoreboard throughout overtime when we were on defense," said Wolma, whose touchdown moments earlier put the Wildcats ahead. "The very last played I turned. I'm like, `I have to watch this.' I'm glad I did."

Quarterback Khalil Tate ran for 137 yards and a touchdown and passed for two more, including a 22-yarder to Wolma in the second overtime, and Arizona held on to beat California 45-44 on Saturday night.

The two teams combined for 984 yards of offense but it was Schooler's defensive play that made the difference.

Green scored the Wildcats touchdown in the first overtime and had a 3-yard run to open the second extra period before Tate scrambled in the backfield to avoid a sack and found Wolma open near the goal line for the game-winner.

California answered with Vic Enwere's 1-yard touchdown run but came up short on the two-point conversion try when Schooler knocked away Ross Bowers' pass intended for Jordan Duncan near the back of the end zone.

"We felt like the overtime two-point was that our best chance to win," Cal coach Justin Wilcox said. "It was my call. We were playing to win the game and that's what I felt like was the best."

That the Bears went for two instead of trying to force a third overtime rankled some of the Wildcats defenders.

"We took it kind of personally how they thought that they could go for two when they didn't need to," Schooler said. "Luckily they didn't get it."

Bowers completed 29 of 49 throws for 301 yards and two touchdowns, one in the first overtime, but was intercepted twice.

The Wildcats (5-2, 3-1 Pac-12) wasted leads of 21-7 and 28-14 before holding off the Bears (4-4, 1-4).

That bodes well for coach Rich Rodriguez's team, which is heading into the meaty portion of its schedule. Arizona next plays No. 15 Washington State in Tucson followed by a road game at No. 11 Southern California on Nov. 4.

"The difference at the end just came down to making plays," Rodriguez said. "They had a good play called. We just had a freshman step up and make a big play."

Tate continued to give Arizona's offense a lift. The Wildcats sophomore quarterback has rushed for 694 yards and passed for 468 in three games since replacing Brandon Dawkins.

Arizona outrushed California 345-172, a big chunk coming on Tate's 76-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The Wildcats did so despite losing running back J.J. Taylor to an ejection in the first half.

California tied the game in the fourth on Patrick Laird's 8-yard touchdown run with 5:07 remaining in regulation. The two teams then exchanged field goals before Arizona missed a chance to win in regulation when Tate's deep throw was intercepted by Ashtyn Davis at the California 1.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• Arizona outlasted Cal 45-44 in double overtime, playing the program's first double overtime game since beating No. 10 Utah 37-30 on Nov. 14, 2015 at Arizona Stadium. The team's last multiple overtime game on the road also came at Cal when the Golden Bears beat the Wildcats 56-55 in triple overtime in 1996.nj,

• Sophomore quarterback Khalil Tate ran for a 76-yard touchdown in the first quarter Saturday night. The run was a career long for Tate and Arizona's longest play from scrimmage this season. Tate's previous career long rush was a 75-yard touchdown run against Colorado in his first extended game action of the season.

• Redshirt freshman Lorenzo Burns established a new career high in tackles with 12. Burns also collected the second interception of his career and also broke up a pass.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- Khalil Tate did it again, and now he has the Arizona Wildcats in position to be taken quite seriously in the Pac-12.

In his fourth straight spectacular performance and the team's fourth consecutive victory, Tate rushed for 158 yards and a touchdown and passed for 275 more and two scores, leading surprising Arizona to a 58-37 victory over No. 15 Washington State on Saturday night.

J.J. Taylor gained 157 yards on 13 carries for Arizona (6-2, 4-1 Pac-12), including touchdown runs of 79 and 3 yards after Washington State (7-2, 4-2) had rallied to take the lead in the third quarter behind backup quarterback Tyler Hilinski.

"It's a great night to be an Arizona Wildcat," coach Rich Rodriguez said.

The loss knocked Washington State out of a tie with Stanford for first place in the Pac-12 North. The Wildcats will play at USC next weekend with first place in the Pac-12 South at stake.

The Wildcats rolled up 310 yards rushing and 58 points against a Washington State team that had ranked third in run defense and second in points allowed in the Pac-12. Hilinski replaced Luke Falk late in the first half and ignited what had been a sputtering offense.

Leach said he initially pulled Falk out of the game to allow the quarterback "to see the field because we weren't pushing the ball down the field. Then Hilinski was hot, so we stayed with Hilinski. The redshirt sophomore completed 45 of 61 passes for 509 yards and three touchdowns. He also ran for two scores but was intercepted four times, the last one returned 66 yards by Colin Schooler for a touchdown.

Tate was the first person to win three consecutive Pac-12 offensive player of the week honors. He had the kind of game Saturday night that might earn him a fourth.

Tate carried 12 times with a long run of 82 yards and an average of 11.2 per carry. He also completed 10 of 17 passes with one interception to go with his two scores.

Arizona needed two plays to regain the lead: Taylor's 62-yard scamper, followed by his 3-yard touchdown run, and the Wildcats were back on top 30-27.

The most significant plays came on the next two possessions. Hilinski drove the Cougars to the Arizona 8-yard line and put them on the verge of regaining the lead. But, being chased to the sideline, he threw into the end zone and was intercepted by Jace Whittaker.

Two plays later, Taylor burst virtually untouched up the middle on a 79-yard touchdown run that boosted Arizona's lead to 37-27, a potential 14-point turnaround.

Arizona: The Wildcats look to make it five wins in a row over Pac-12 foes at USC in a game that, believe it or not, will decide who is in first place in the Pac-12 South.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• Arizona topped Washington State 58-37 Saturday night. It marked the most points scored in a conference game since beating the Cougars 59-37 in Pullman in 2014. Arizona has now won four straight conference games, its longest streak since 2014 when the Wildcats beat Colorado, Washington, Utah and Arizona State to finish the regular season.

• Arizona's win over No. 15 Washington State was the program's first win over a ranked opponent since topping No. 10 Utah 37-30 in double overtime on Nov. 14, 2015. It is Arizona's eighth win over a ranked opponent in coach Rich Rodriguez's tenure.

• Freshman Lucas Havrisik connected on a 57-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. The kick tied a school record for longest made field goal.

LOS ANGELES (AP) -- When Khalil Tate and Arizona's offense erased their entire 22-point deficit with four touchdowns in roughly 11 minutes, Ronald Jones II and Sam Darnold knew they had to answer the Wildcats' big-play quarterback with a few memorable moments of their own.

Southern California's offensive stars got it done in a victory that put the Trojans in charge of the Pac-12 South. Jones rushed for 194 yards and three touchdowns, and No. 17 USC overcame Tate's big second-half rally for a 49-35 victory over 23rd-ranked Arizona on Saturday night.

Darnold passed for 311 yards and two TDs for the Trojans (8-2, 6-1 Pac-12), who led 28-6 midway through the third quarter before Tate finally got the Wildcats (6-3, 4-2) rolling.

Arizona evened it at 35 on Zach Green's TD run and a 2-point conversion with 8:23 remaining. But Jones ran wild in the fourth quarter, racking up 96 yards while scoring the tiebreaking touchdown with 5:37 to play and adding another score with 3:09 left as the Trojans pulled away.

"We knew we had to win this game," said Jones, who also had a 98-yard TD run erased by a penalty. "We want a championship bad, and we're going to do anything we have to."

USC is alone atop the Pac-12 South after its 15th consecutive victory at the Coliseum. One victory in the Trojans' final two games against Colorado and UCLA will put them in the conference title game next month.

Tate, an Inglewood native and high school classmate of several Trojans, rushed for 161 yards and passed for 146 yards and two TDs. After being bottled up in the first half, he rushed for a 32-yard TD and threw a 30-yard scoring pass in the third quarter.

"We got a little momentum going, and our guys made some tremendous plays in the second half," Arizona coach Rich Rodriguez said. "It'll hurt for 24 hours, but we'll come back with a better plan."

Tate was sacked five times, and he threw two fourth-quarter interceptions to USC's Ajene Harris and John Houston as the Wildcats' four-game winning streak ended.

Jalen Greene returned a blocked punt for a touchdown in the first quarter for the Trojans. Tyler Vaughns and Steven Mitchell caught TD passes for USC, and Aca'Cedric Ware rushed for 122 yards and another score.

THE TAKEAWAY

Arizona: The charmed October is over, but the Wildcats played another exciting, high-scoring game. This loss won't do much to dampen the optimism around a program that appeared to be at a crossroads one month ago.

USC: The Trojans have been criticized all season long for not meeting this program's annual sky-high expectations, but they could wrap up the Pac-12 South title next week. If they earn a spot in the conference title game, they'll play it coming off a bye week, since USC doesn't play on Thanksgiving weekend. The Trojans' first conference title since 2008 has never been closer.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• Sophomore quarterback Khalil Tate rushed for 161 yards Saturday night, giving him 1,087 yards on the season. Tate established a new school record for rushing yards in a season by a quarterback, eclipsing B.J. Denker's mark of 949 yards set in 2013.

• Tate also surpassed Washington's Jake Locker for most single-season rushing yards by a Pac-12 quarterback in the win. Locker held the previous record with 986 rushing yards. Tate needed just 89 carries to reach 1,000 yards on the season.

• Tate scored on a 32-yard rush in the third quarter, giving him a touchdown run in five straight games. The 32-yard touchdown was Tate's second shortest touchdown run of the season. Tate had a 28-yard touchdown against Colorado.

• Junior receiver Shun Brown established a new career high for pass receptions with eight. Brown's previous high was seven twice, set most recently against Colorado.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate ran his streak of 100-yard rushing games to six, finishing with 206 yards and two touchdowns on 16 carries in the Wildcats' 49-28 win over Oregon State on Saturday night.

The Wildcats ran for a school record 534 yards, with three players going over 100 yards.

Tate's had a 19-yard second-quarter touchdown run in which he bowled over a would-be tackler in the open field on his way to the end zone. He also sprinted 71 yards for a touchdown early in the third quarter. The sophomore has a rushing touchdown in each of the last six games and a team-high 11 this season. Tate has four of the five longest touchdown runs for Arizona this season, and twice has run 71 yards for a score.

Arizona (7-3 overall, 5-2 Pac-12) and Tate hardly needed to throw the ball, as the ground game racked up 384 yards by halftime with Nick Wilson, Zach Green and receiver Tony Ellison running for touchdowns in the first half.

Green ran for a pair of scores, one in each half. J.J. Taylor rushed for 129 yards and Wilson, a senior playing in the final home game of his career, added 101. Tate accounted for 65 yards of an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to open the game. The Wildcats have won five of six.

Oregon State (1-9, 0-7) has lost eight straight.

The Beavers were held scoreless until the opening drive of the second half, which ended on Darell Garretson's 15-yard touchdown pass to Noah Togiai. Garretson threw two of his four touchdown passes in the third quarter and Ryan Nall led the Beavers with 88 yards rushing on 20 carries, adding a 44-yard touchdown catch in the fourth. Isaiah Hodgins and Timmy Hernandez caught scoring passes from Garretson, who had 209 yards passing.

Tate completed 5 of 7 passes for 68 yards and threw his sixth interception of the season. He completed his only pass attempt of the second half and was replaced by junior Brandon Dawkins, who began the season as the starter, early in the fourth quarter. Dawkins ran for a four-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Trailing 35-14 late in the third quarter, Oregon State got the ball on offense but couldn't move it, and a 23-yard punt set up the Wildcats at the Beavers' 34-yard line. Green ran for a three-yard touchdown on that drive to give Arizona a 42-14 lead with 32 seconds left in the third.

TAKEAWAY

Oregon State: The Beavers have two more shots at a second win — next Saturday at home against Arizona State and at Oregon in the Civil War rivalry on Nov. 25. Oregon State had shown improvement over the past three weeks, with two close losses,

Arizona: The Wildcats did what they had to do stay in second place in the Pac-12 South, and did so with a representative from the Valero Alamo Bowl on hand at Arizona Stadium. While a bowl game looks certain with seven wins, Arizona has two tough road games to finish the regular season, at Oregon next Saturday and at archrival Arizona State on Nov. 25. Holding onto second place in the South won't be easy, as both the Ducks and Sun Devils are vying for bowl berths.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• As a team, Arizona ran for 534 yards against Oregon State, establishing a new record for rushing yards in a game. The previous record was 511 yards set last season against Arizona State.

• The Wildcats have now gone over 500 yards twice this season, after having just one such game in program history entering the season. Arizona rushed for 506 yards in the season opener versus Northern Arizona.

• Sophomore quarterback Khalil Tate rushed for 206 yards against the Beavers. The 206 yards are tied with Ka'Deem Carey for the 15th best single-season rushing total in school history. Tate owns three of the top 15 marks now. In just six career starts, Tate has three 200-yard rushing games, which is tied with Trung Canidate for second-most in school history. Ka'Deem Carey owns the record with four 200-yard games.

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) -- Royce Freeman ran for four touchdowns and Oregon got a boost from the return of starting quarterback Justin Herbert for a 48-28 victory over Arizona on Saturday night.

The victory made the Ducks (6-5, 3-5 Pac-12) bowl eligible in Willie Taggart's first season as head coach. Freeman ran for 135 yards on 19 carries. His first scoring run of the game gave him the Oregon career record for rushing touchdowns.

Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate was held back by Oregon's defense, passing for 159 yards and a touchdown while running for 32 yards. Tate, who was the team's leading rusher with 11 touchdowns, had run for a touchdown in each of the last six games for Arizona (7-4, 5-3).

Herbert returned from a five-game absence because of a broken collarbone. There was a roar of applause when he was announced as the starter by the public address announcer at Autzen Stadium. He proclaimed his comeback on-field with a 40-yard dash for a touchdown in the opening quarter that tied the game at 7.

Herbert was injured in Oregon's 45-24 victory over California on Sept. 30 and replaced by true freshman Braxton Burmeister. The Ducks went 1-4 over the course of Herbert's absence. Herbert passed for 235 yards and a score in his return.

The Wildcats scored first Saturday on Nick Wilson's 18-yard run. After Herbert's long scoring run, Freeman ran four yards for his 59th touchdown, setting a new Oregon career record.

Arizona's Dane Cruikshank intercepted Herbert early in the second quarter and ran the ball back 64 yards into the end zone but as he sprinted the final 10 yards he wagged his finger at the Oregon players chasing him. He was flagged for taunting and the touchdown was negated.

Arizona ended the drive with a touchdown anyway when Tate hit Tony Ellison with a 15-yard touchdown and then Wilson gave the Wildcats a 21-14 lead with a 20-yard scoring run. But Herbert found Jacob Breeland with 39-yard touchdown pass to tie it again and Freeman added a 28-yard scoring run to give the Ducks a 28-21 lead at halftime.

Freeman added an 11-yard touchdown run midway through the third quarter, but Arizona kept it close with Zach Green's 2-yard touchdown run.

Aiden Schneider's 40-yard field goal gave the Ducks a 38-28 lead to open the fourth quarter. After Herbert's 50-yard pass to Johnny Johnson III, Freeman ran a yard for his fourth TD of the night. He moved past LaDanian Tomlinson into 10th on the NCAA's career list with 5,499 yards and has 58 career rushing touchdowns, one shy of conference record set by Oregon State's Ken Simonton (1998-2001). Schneider's 24-yard field goal was for the final margin.

Tate went into the game leading the nation with five 70-plus yard runs, four of them for touchdowns. He has the longest run for a quarterback (82 yards) and his 327 yards rushing against Colorado set a single-game NCAA record for a QB.

TAKEAWAY
Arizona: Wilson has 33 career touchdowns. ... Arizona is finishing out its season with consecutive road games for the first time since 2009. ... The Wildcats had won five of the last six games. ... Arizona was already assured of playing in the postseason. USC has already clinched a spot in the league championship game for the Pac-12 South.

Oregon: Freeman had not scored a rushing touchdown since Sept. 23. He went over 100 yards rushing for the 30th time in his career. ... It was the third time he's run for four touchdowns in a game. ... Oregon was coming off a bye after a 38-3 loss at Washington.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• Junior Jace Whittaker had his team-leading 10th pass breakup in Saturday's game, giving him 26 for his career. He's now tied with James DeBow (1985-88) for 13th all-time at Arizona. He's one away from tying Kelvin Hunter and Chris McAlister for 11th all-time.

• Sophomore quarterback Khalil Tate had 32 rushing yards and upped his season total to 1,325 yards. He passed Art Luppino (1,313 yards) for sixth all-time on Arizona's single-season rushing list. Luppino had 1,313 yards in 1955. Luppino is also sixth on the list with 1,359 yards, which he rushed for in 1954. Tate will pass him with 35 more yards.

• Arizona rushed for 167 yards Saturday and has now rushed for at least 150 yards in 17 straight games dating back to last season. It's the longest streak in coach Rich Rodriguez's tenure at Arizona.

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP)-- Demario Richard ran for 165 yards and two touchdowns, Manny Wilkins threw for three more scores, with a 42-30 victory over rival Arizona on Saturday.

Arizona State (7-5, 6-3 Pac-12) came out flat in the desert, unable to stop the Wildcats and trailing by 10 at halftime.

Once Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate went out with a left shoulder injury, Arizona State roared back in the second half to take back the Territorial Cup. The Sun Devils turned a blocked punt and an interception into two quick scores to snatch the lead, and Richard made it 35-24 with a 6-yard TD run.

Tate threw for 132 yards and scored on a 1-yard run in the first half, but was injured on a Hail Mary the last play. He was replaced by Brandon Dawkins, returned for one series and sat out the rest of the game.

Arizona (7-5, 5-4 Pac-12) appeared to be done without their star quarterback, but Dawkins broke off a 50-yard TD run early in the fourth quarter to cut Arizona State's lead to 35-30.

Arizona's Shun Brown had a 74-yard punt return touchdown called back on a block in the back penalty, and Wilkins followed with his second touchdown pass to N'Keal Harry, a 9-yarder that put the Sun Devils up 42-30.

Wilkins threw for 163 yards on 11-of-17 passing.

Arizona won last year's game by ditching its usual no-huddle offense, running away from the Sun Devils for a school-record 511 yards rushing and 56-35 victory. The Wildcats went back to the no-huddle for this year's game. It made little difference. The Sun Devils couldn't stop that, either.

Arizona marched against Arizona State's defense without much resistance, gaining 251 yards while building a 24-14 halftime lead. Tate's only incompletion of the half -- on 11 attempts -- came on the Hail Mary and the Wildcats scored three touchdowns on the ground: Zach Green from 15 yards, Tate a 1-yarder and J.J. Taylor 15 yards late in the half.

Arizona State's fortunes changed quickly in the second half.

Arizona went three and out in its first series, Curtis Hodges blocked the punt and Richard scored on a 1-yard run to cut Arizona's lead to 24-21. Dawkins threw an interception on Arizona's next possession and Harry pulled down a spectacular 5-yard TD pass from Wilkins.

Once on the verge of being blown out, the Sun Devils suddenly had a 28-24 lead.

Arizona State closed out the comeback victory with a goal-line stand with 2 minutes left and Richard broke off a 63-yard run the next play.

ARIZONA QUICK HITS

• Senior running back Nick Wilson finished with 51 rushing yards Saturday night, giving him 3,009 yards for his career. Wilson is the seventh player in school history to reach the 3,000-yard mark, joining Ka'Deem Carey, Trung Canidate, Ontiwaun Carter, Art Luppino, Mike Bell and Hubie Oliver.

• Redshirt freshman cornerback Lorenzo Burns collected his fifth interception of the season on Saturday. He's the first Arizona player to have five interceptions in a season since Trevin Wade in 2009. Burns entered the game tied for the national lead in interceptions among freshmen.

• Sophomore quarterback Khalil Tate scored his 12th rushing touchdown of the season in Saturday's first half. That moved him into eighth place on Arizona's single-season rushing touchdown list. With one more, he'll tie Nic Grigsby and B.J. Denker for seventh. Denker's 13 touchdowns are the most in school history by a quarterback.

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP) - When Elijah Sindelar took the field for Purdue's late comeback attempt in a bowl game he thought back on a failed opportunity in a similar situation in the season opener.

The difference from that interception he threw against Louisville to a bowl-game winning touchdown against Arizona sums up the progress the Boilermakers made in their first season under coach Jeff Brohm.

Sindelar threw a 38-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Mahoungou with 1:44 remaining and Purdue capped its most successful season in years in dramatic style with a 38-35 victory over Arizona in the Foster Farms Bowl on Wednesday night.

"I just did not want to do that again," Sindelar said about his interception in the opener. "I remembered that feeling, I was going to try to do everything I could to make sure we didn't have to experience that again."

The Boilermakers (7-6) had squandered a 17-point halftime lead when Khalil Tate threw his fifth TD pass with 3:21 remaining to give the Wildcats (7-6) the lead.

But Sindelar responded with a 75-yard drive that ended with the deep throw into the end zone to Mahoungou, giving the Boilermakers their first winning record since 2011 and first bowl win over a major conference team since beating Washington in the 2002 Sun Bowl. Purdue had won only nine games in the previous four seasons before Brohm arrived.

"That's a memory you'll cherish for the rest of your life," Brohm said "They definitely earned it because they put in the hard work, have gone through the adversity and continued to hang in there."

Sindelar threw for 396 yards and four touchdowns, with Mahoungou (118 yards) and Gregory Phillips (149) each topping the 100-yard mark and catching two TD passes.

Tate was just as good, showing he can win with his arm as well as he can with his legs that carried him to 1,353 yards rushing in the regular season. Tate threw for 302 yards and five touchdowns but his late interception to Jacob Thieneman ended the comeback attempt.

"They made one more play than we did at the end to win," coach Rich Rodriguez said. "It's pretty simple. Give them credit but I'm also pretty excited about the future."

Brohm pulled out all the stops, going for it three times on fourth down, calling a couple of flea-flickers and using an innovative trick play on a fake kneel down to set up a field goal at the end of the first half that made it 31-14.

THE TAKEAWAY

Purdue: The Boilermakers were dynamic in the 31-point first half, showing off offensive prowess that was rarely seen on a consistent basis during the regular season. The offense stalled mostly in the second half before the winning score. The most promising drive before that ended when Markell Jones got stopped just short of the first-down marker on a fourth-down pass.

Arizona: The Boilermakers managed to keep Tate's electric running in check, holding him to just 58 yards on 20 carries. But that opened up space for him to exploit them with downfield throws and he had career highs in touchdown passes and yards passing.

Scholar-Athlete Awards

2012 Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete - John Bonano
John Bonano earned NCAA and Pac-12 Postgraduate Scholarships, the Pac-12 Tom Hansen Medal. He was named a 2012 CoSIDA Second-Team Academic All-American, the 2012 Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year, was a three-time Pac-12 All-Academic honoree.

In 2012, Bonano ranked fifth in the Pac-12 in scoring and No. 1 among kickers with 7.8 points per game. In his final campaign, he was 58-of-59 in PATs and 14-of-20 in field goals. He also ran in for a two-point conversion against ASU. Bonano's PAT with 0:19 to play in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl gave the Wildcats the go-ahead score to win the game, 49-48. He owns the school record for consecutive PAT kicks made with 73.

Additionally, Bonano earned a 2013 Pillar of Excellence Award, given out by Arizona's Honors College to distinguished graduating seniors. On March 3, Bonano was honored by the Southern Arizona Chapter of the National Football Foundation as a 2013 Scholar-Athlete. He earned his degree in physiology in December 2012.

2007 ToyoTires Pac-10 Scholar-Athlete - Spencer Larsen
A two-time first-team Academic All-Pac-10 selection, Arizona linebacker Spencer Larsen became the first league football player named in the initial group of student-athletes to receive the conference's new Scholar-Athlete Award. Larsen's 3.70 grade point average in regional development, his first-team All-Pac-10 playing honor and his exemplary citizenship and scholastic standing helped him earn the award. He led the Pac-10 with 131 tackles his senior year, led Arizona with 15.5 tackles for loss, was in on seven fumble plays (4 FR and 3 FF)and knocked down five passes. He finished his career with a total of 312 tackles. He was a 2007 finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy awarded annually to a top citizen-athlete among national collegiate football players, and an All-America selection by rivals.com (2nd team) and cfn.com (3rd).

2003 Woody Hayes Scholar-Athlete - Jason Johnson
University of Arizona senior quarterback Jason Johnson won the 2003 Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athelte Award in January 2003, honoring an exemplary year as the outstanding man in Division I athletics.

Johnson, who made outstanding appearances in both the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl, earned Academic All-Pac-10 first-team quarterback honors for the second consecutive year, was a Verizon District VIII first-team Academic pick, won a berth on the American Football Coaches "Good Works Team" and completed his final year at Arizona with more than a dozen single-seeason, career or UA top-10 marks in passing and total offense. He was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player for 2002 and elected a co-captain by his teammates. He was a Canadian Football League quarterback and Grey Cup Champion for Edmonton after his graduation.

Johnson completed his undergraduate studies in 2001 with a 3.79 grade point average in business management, then was a honors graduate student in religious studies his final two semesters. Among his community activities were the Fellowship for Christian Athletes, Drug Free School Program, youth basketball coaching, Adopt a Family, Race for a Cure Cancer Walk and numerous youth-oriented speaking engagements.

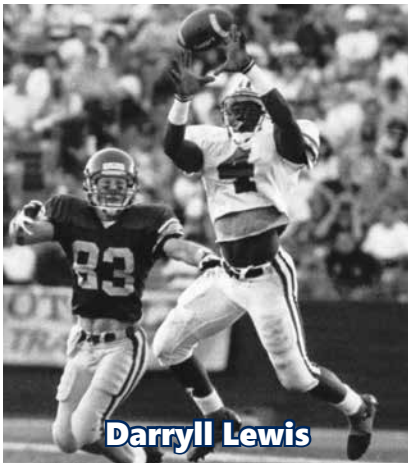

1996 Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete - Wayne Wyatt
A two-year starting center on the Wildcat football teams of 1995-96 and eventually one of three team captains, Wayne Wyatt earned respectable numbers on the field. But his numbers off the field captured national attention — namely his 3.941 grade point average. He was selected as one of the 16 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athletes in 1996, with an $18,000 scholarship for post-graduate studies, which he used for dental school. Wyatt was named to the 1996 GTE Academic All-America football first team by the College Sports Information Directors of America, Arizona's fifth player to earn first-team scholastic honors.

Wyatt earned Pacific-10 All-Academic and GTE All-District 8 honors. He was honored as one of the UA's distinguished scholar-athletes, named every semester to the Dean's List and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors as well. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy in August 1995 and a master's degree in business administration in May 1997.

National Player of the Year Awards

1990 Jim Thorpe Award - Darryll Lewis
Arizona defensive back Darryll Lewis won the 1990 Jim Thorpe Award as the country's top defensive back. Lewis, who was inducted into Arizona's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, finished his career with 14 interceptions, played in the Hula Bowl, was a third-round NFL pick and is a regular NFL starter. He was the 1990 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year.

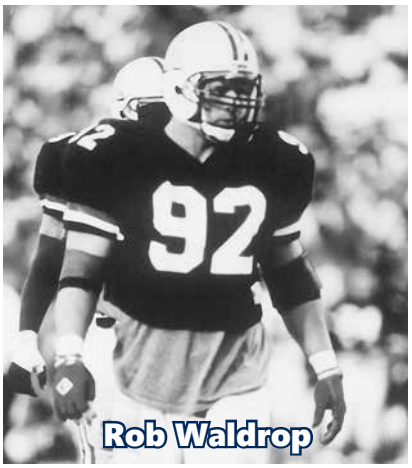

Lewis was a game-turning defensive back; such as the time his interception return of 70 yards for a score helped UA beat UCLA. Or his goal-line stop of scrambling Oregon quarterback Bill Musgrave at the goal line to preserve another victory. Those were huge plays by a big-time player, but a few of many he provided as a four-year letterman from 1987-1990.

Darryll Lewis

1993 Outland Trophy - Rob Waldrop
Wildcat defensive tackle Rob Waldrop capped a tremendous career as the winner of the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman in 1993.

Opponents double- and triple-teamed him at times in an effort to contain his pass rush and run-stopping techniques. Among his 53 tackles that year were 14 for losses, including eight sacks — a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. In his final two seasons, he had 18 sacks and spearheaded the play, which spawned the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname. He also won the Football Writer's inaugural Defensive Player of the Year Award, now called the Bronko Nagurski Award. He was named UPI Lineman of the Year as well.

In a superior effort at the 1994 Fiesta Bowl, Waldrop helped pin Miami with its back to the goal and came up with another sack, helping Arizona beat Miami, 29-0.

Rob Waldrop

1994 Lou Groza Award - Steve McLaughlin
Arizona's Steve McLaughlin topped a remarkable four-year career in 1994 by winning the Lou Groza Collegiate Place Kicker Award as the nation's best — the player you want to kick one in the clutch. He certainly did in 1994, earning consensus first-team All-America honors.

He made 80 percent of his kicks during the season, including an amazing 12-of-16 from beyond 40 yards and 3-of-5 from beyond 50 yards. Subtracting a couple of monster tries at the end of periods, he was 23-of-27 from 57 yards and in. He led the Pac-10 in scoring with 95 points in 1994 and was first in the league and second nationally with 2.1 field goals per game. He kicked a career-best 54-yard field goal against California to earn an AT&T Long Distance Award for the longest kick of the week. He made all 26 of his point-after kicks. He was an accomplished pooch punter from field goal formation and kicked off his final two years as well.

He finished his career with 57 field goals in 81 tries and made 112-of-119 PATs for 283 points, third on the UA's all-time scoring list.

McLaughlin acquired the 'let-me-kick-it' attitude that is so critical to the trade. He had some misses that might have turned games but kept his confidence growing. One big day for McLaughlin came when his three field goals helped beat No. 1 Washington in 1992.

1998 Mosi Tatupu Award - Chris McAlister
Arizona cornerback Chris McAlister capped an outstanding three-year Wildcat career by winning the 1998 Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award as the nation's top player in the kicking game.

McAlister, a unanimous All-America pick and finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award honoring the best collegiate defensive back that year as well, was involved in Arizona's special teams from both sides of the kick.

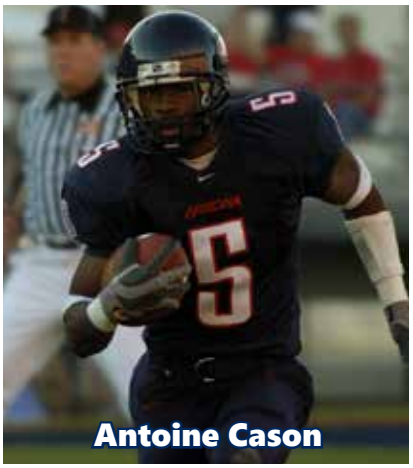

In 1998, he set the tone for the Cats' big-play 12-1 season by returning the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown at Hawai'i on the first play of the year, tying his own school record set in 1996 against UCLA. He blocked punts in each of the final two regular-season games of the year and had a third deflected punt. He returned a punt 69 yards for a score against Northeast Louisiana and returned an interception 60 yards for a score against Washington State to become only the seventh player in NCAA history to have scored on kickoff, punt and interception returns in a single season.

Chris McAlister

He was a defensive player who averaged 38 yards per game in all-purpose yardage: eight kickoff returns for a 29.5 mark, five punt returns for a 20.8 mark and five interception returns for a 12.8 figure. What it meant to the Cats for three years was like having a 12th player on the field each time McAlister took his place somewhere among the action. His 18 career interceptions placed him No. 3 on UA's all-time chart, but his special teams' play was unmatched.

2007 Jim Thorpe Award - Antoine Cason
Arizona cornerback Antoine Cason became UA's second Jim Thorpe Award winner and the latest Wildcat consensus All-American since 1999 with his superlative senior season in 2007. Among his highlight-reel plays in 2007 were interception returns of 42 yards for a score against Oregon, a 56-yard punt return for a score against the Ducks and a 60-yard interception return for a score against Oregon State. He had three other interceptions on the year to give him a career total of 15, fourth best in school history. His 165 yard on INT returns was just shy of the school record 191 yards set by Thorpe Award winner Darryll Lewis in 1990.

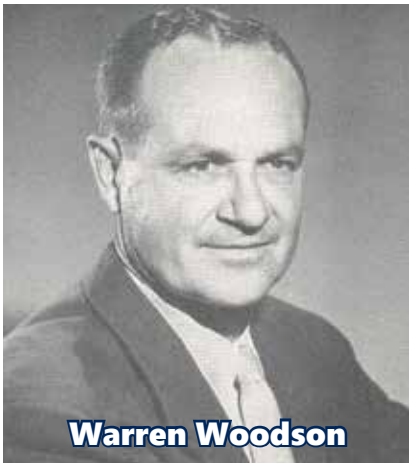

Cason was a two-time first-team All-Pac-10 selection. In 2007 he was named first-team All-America by Walter Camp, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, CBS Sports, ESPN.com, SI.com, Rivals.com and cfn.com. His electrifying play was no more special than his off-the-field comportment as a UA team spokesman and leader throughout his career. His 'Cason Cares' charity drive for cancer research in 2007 typified his renaissance leadership. He was Arizona's Ruby Award winner as the top male student-athlete for the 2007-08 school year. But his senior year's action on the field was special. He finished with 71 tackles, five interception, 14 passes defensed, two forced fumbles, a sack and four tackles for loss. His four returns for scores (2 INT, 2 PR) set a UA standard.

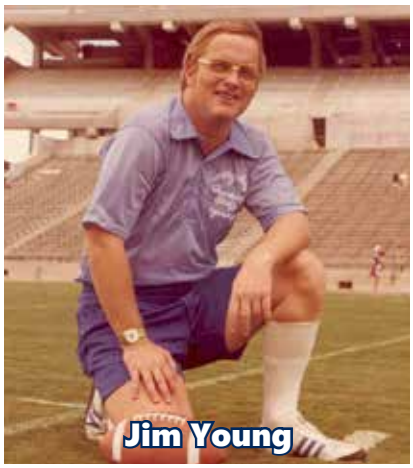

Antoine Cason

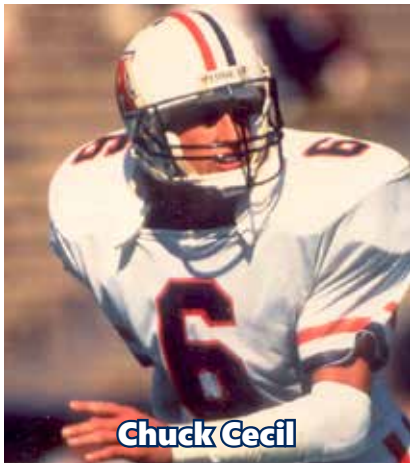

2014 Chuck Bednarik Award, Rotatary Lombardi Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy - Scooby Wright III
Sophomore linebacker Scooby Wright III swept the national defensive player of the year awards in 2014. Also Arizona's sixth unanimous All-American, he was named the Pac-12 Pat Tillman Defensive Player of the Year and the CBSSports.com, Scout.com and SB National National Defensive Player of the Year. A three-time Pac-12 Player of the Week, Wright was also the lone defensive player named Walter Camp Player of the Year Finalist.

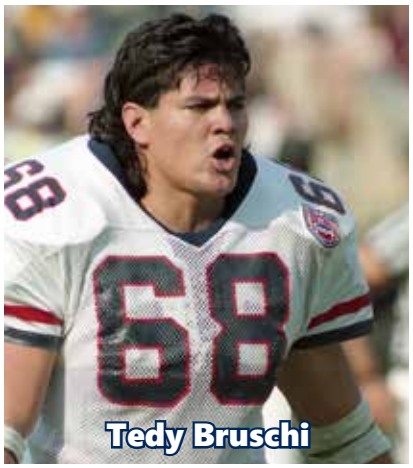

He turned in one of the most prolific defensive seasons in NCAA history. He ranked in the top five among FBS players for total tackles (163), tackles for loss (29.0), sacks (14.0) and forced fumbles (6). He set career game-high 19 tackles at UCLA, 5.0 TFL vs. ASU and three forced fumbles at Washington State.

Wright was instrumental in Arizona's 10-win season and bids to the Pac-12 Championship and VIZIO Fiesta Bowl Games.

Wildcats in the NFF College Hall of Fame

Coach Warren Woodson - 1989 Inductee
Arizona's head coach from 1952-56, Warren Woodson was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989. He served as Art Luppino's head coach during his NCAA-leading rushing seasons in 1954 and 1955. During his career, he coached six NCAA rushing leaders. He led the Wildcats to a 26-22-3 record during his four seasons in Tucson.

Linebacker Ricky Hunley - 1998 Inductee
One of many defensive stars at Arizona over the years, All-America linebacker Ricky Hunley was a hugely physical presence in the early 1980s and became the first Wildcat elected to the College Football Hall of Fame, with induction in 1998. He turned down a Pittsburgh Pirates baseball offer to play football at Arizona. From 1980 to 1983, Hunley was in on an amazing 566 tackles and was a consensus first-team All-American in both 1982 and 1983. He was a three-time All-Pacific-10 Conference selection and was the 1983 Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year. A team captain in 1983, he also earned Arizona's Most Valuable Player honor in helping lead the Wildcats to a 7-3-1 record. For several seasons, he played alongside his younger brother, LaMonte, also a Wildcat linebacker. Hunley led the Wildcats in unassisted tackles every year from 1981-83 with totals of 74, 100 and 99, respectively. He also set a school record recovering five fumbles in 1983. Now a professional coach, Hunley played in the NFL for seven years and participated in Super Bowls XXI and XXII as a Denver Bronco. He has coached at Southern California and Missouri and served on the Board of Directors for the Black Coaches Association and the Minority Issues Committee of the AFCA.

Coach Jim Young - 1999 Inductee
Former University of Arizona coach Jim Young joined several other coaches — Don Coryell and Jerry Claiborne — and the likes of Herschel Walker, Billy Kilmer, John Hannah, Ross Browner and several other storied players in the 1999 class of inductees into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame. Young, retired in Tucson, had three successful head coaching stints, including his first at Arizona from 1973 to 1976, at Purdue from 1977 to 1981 and a tour of duty at Army from 1983 to 1990. Overall, he won more than 60 percent of his games, at 120-71-2, turning around programs at each stop. At UA, he was 31-13 and posted two 9-2 seasons in 1974 and 1975, among UA's best ever. His 1973 Arizona club finished 8-3 and tied for UA's first conference title in 40 years. At Purdue, he was 38-19-1 with three bowl victories. Coaching the Cadets, he was 51-39-1 with a 2-1 bowl record. Young, who holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Bowling Green, employed passing attacks at Arizona and Purdue and installed the wishbone at Army to reach national rushing prominence. Young completed his football career as an offensive assistant on Dick Tomey's 1992-94 Arizona staffs after Tomey talked him into delaying his retirement.

Coach Darrell Mudra - 2000 Inductee
Darrell Mudra retired from collegiate football in 1988 bringing an end to a Hall of Fame career, which boasts a 200-81-4 record and two national championships. He started his collegiate head-coaching career at Adams State in 1959 and led the team to the 1962 Mineral Bowl, where they defeated Northern Illinois 23-20. In 1963 he became the head coach at North Dakota State where he successfully turned the program around from a 0-10 record the year before, to a 1964 Mineral Bowl victory. In 1965 he won his first national championship defeating Grambling 20-7 in the Pecan Bowl. He then coached the University of Arizona for two seasons and led them to the 1968 Sun Bowl. After a successful stint at Western Illinois, Mudra coached Florida State for two years before going to Eastern Illinois where he won the Division II National Championship. During Coach Mudra's tenure at Northern Iowa, he led the team to the I-AA semifinals in 1985 and 1987. The Panthers were ranked fourth nationally at the end of the 1987 season and lost to the eventual national champion Northeast Louisiana 44-41 in overtime. He was named Kodak Region 4 Coach of the Year in 1985 while at UNI. Mudra was nicknamed "Dr. Victory" because of his success at each level, but always shied away from all of the accolades, preferring to let his assistants and players take the credit.

Safety Chuck Cecil - 2009 Inductee
A three-time First Team Academic All-America selection (1986-87), Cecil starred for Arizona from 1984 to 1987, first under the late Larry Smith and then under former head coach Dick Tomey for his final year. He began as a recruited walk-on and finished his UA career as one of the Pac-10's noted and fearless safeties. A consensus All-American in 1987, Cecil was the Aloha Bowl MVP and a two-time first-team all-conference selection, plus earned second-team honors as a sophomore. He was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 and Pac-10 Player of the Week on three occasions. A three-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection, he culminated his education as a recipient of the NCAA Top VI Award, one of the nation's top scholar-athlete citations. He was named Arizona's male winner of the the Pac-10 Conference Medal.

He holds the Arizona career record with 21 interceptions and among those returned one 100 yards for a touchdown against Arizona State in 1986, one of the most electrifying moment in UA football history. Drafted in the fourth round of the 1988 draft by the Green Bay Packers, Cecil spent seven seasons in the NFL and is currently defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans. Cecil has served as co-chair of the University of Arizona Medical Center Foundation campaign for UMC Trauma Center.

Defensive Tackle Rob Waldrop - 2011 Inductee
A two-time consensus All-American during his junior and senior seasons, Waldrop was the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1993, received the Outland Trophy honoring the country's top interior lineman, was voted the Top Defensive Player of the Year by the Football Writers of America (now called the Bronko Nagurski award), and was one of four finalists for the Lombardi Trophy honoring the outstanding lineman of the year.

In 1992 he was voted by opposing linemen as the Pac-10's defensive winner of the Morris Award. He earned first-team All-Pacific-10 Conference honors in 1992 and 1993 and was Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week against Miami in 1992 and versus USC in 1993. He was named defensive MVP of the 1992 Sun Bowl. He earned Playboy Pigskin Preview All-America honors in 1993. During his senior season, Waldrop recorded 53 total tackles, 14 for losses, including eight sacks --a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. His play, which helped spawn the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname, was evident in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl when he helped guide Arizona to a shutout, 29-0 victory. He spearheaded an effort which helped the Wildcats lead the nation and set a Pac-10 record with 33 rushing yards allowed per game in 1993, when Arizona led the nation in total defense. He finished his Arizona career with an amazing 164 tackles for an interior lineman, with 44 tackles for loss and 22.5 sacks, which rate fifth in UA's history. Waldrop was drafted in `94 by the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs, played two seasons and later went on to a 1996 stint with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL.

Defensive Tackle Tedy Bruschi - 2013 Inductee
With Bruschi as a key component, Arizona's Desert Swarm defense led the nation in scoring defense in 1992. In 1993, Desert Swarm led the nation in rushing defense and defined a squad that achieved UA's first 10-victory season, defeating Miami, 29-0, in the Fiesta Bowl. Bruschi was named Fiesta Bowl MVP.

Bruschi (1991-95) ended his career with 52 sacks, tied for the most in NCAA history. He was a consensus All-American in 1994 and a unanimous All-American in 1995.

Bruschi's celebrated senior season included the 1995 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year honors and winning the Morris Trophy as the league's best defensive lineman. He was a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award and graduated with 74 tackles for loss, which ranked sixth in FBS history. Bruschi was named all-conference three times and he led the Wildcats to three bowl berths under head coach Dick Tomey.

The San Francisco native was a third-round selection by the New England Patriots in the 1996 NFL Draft. Bruschi enjoyed a 13-year career, winning three Super Bowls with the franchise. The Pro Bowler was named the Associated Press' Comeback Player of the Year in 2005 following a stroke.

Super Bowl Wildcats

Former UA players have 48 overall player appearances in the NFL Championship tilt. Three former Wildcats played in Super Bowl LII at Minneapolis, Minn., where quarterback Nick Foles earned MVP honors in leading Philadelphia to the championship. The trio of Super Bowl Cats in 2018 matched the UA's high for a single Super Bowl, first set at Super Bowl XLII in 2008 in Glendale, Ariz. Retired linebacker Tedy Bruschi and offensive lineman Glenn Parker lead all UA players with five Super Bowls – all of Bruschi's with the New England Patriots and Parker in four with the Buffalo Bills and one with the New York Giants. Bruschi, the NCAA career sack leader when he left college, has the best Super Bowl jewelry collection with three Championship rings as the starting middle linebacker for the Patriots in the 2000s. In 2008, starting linebacker Antonio Pierce and backup DB Michael Johnson took home championship rings for the New York Giants over Bruschi's Pats. Current Patriots tight end Rob Gronkowski has appeared in three super bowls in the last five seasons.

Arizona Stadium is one of the finest playing facilities in the country and was recently upgraded through one of the most significant improvements in its history. The home of the Wildcats, Arizona Stadium reflects the history and tradition of Arizona football and the overall growth of the University of Arizona campus.

The Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, which opened to the public in August 2013, is a reflection of that growth and completed a dynamic shift in the Arizona football culture as it becomes the centerpiece of the program on the north end of Arizona Stadium. Supported by private funds including significant leadership gifts from David and Edith Lowell and from Jeff and Sharon Stevens, the $72.3 million project provides the Wildcats with one of the premier football facilities in the nation.

The facility is a four-floor operations center with strength and conditioning, sports medicine, coaches' offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, equipment and facility service areas. The structure encloses the north end of the stadium and creates a full bowl with nearly 4,000 premium spectator seats, including a donor lounge with outdoor seating. Additionally, stairways and elevator towers for the concourse connect the structure to the existing east and west stadium sections. Restrooms, amenity areas and a cafeteria also serve fans, campus and the community.

Spectators in the revamped north end of the stadium have a front and center view of the state-of-the-art video board beyond the opposite end zone. In August 2011, Arizona completed work on the video board for the south end zone. The new video board measures 113' wide by 47' high - 6.5 times larger than the previous board - and is one of the largest in all of college sports.

Indeed, the recent upgrades are the latest in the evolution of Arizona Stadium over the years. Built in 1928 with 7,000 seats located on the west side between the end zones, the stadium has grew into a 57,000-seat facility that combines tradition with modern conveniences, remaining one of the top venues for its spectators. Every seat features an uncluttered view of the playing surface, and more than half of the seats provide sweeping vistas of the campus and nearby city skyline, as well as the Santa Catalina Mountains.

Since playing and winning their first game on Oct. 12, 1929 (35-0 vs. California Tech), Arizona football teams have played 481 games in the stadium, 381 of them at twilight or night, winning 275, losing 174 and tying 12. The team has never failed to win at least one home game in a season and has gone undefeated nine times, the last time coming with a 6-0 record in 1993.

As Arizona football grew, so did the facilities surrounding it. In 1989, a $6.3 million structure housing the media, skyboxes and loge seating was added to accommodate increased interest in the football program. Two other non-football features of the stadium are notable - UA's renowned Tree Ring Research Lab on the west side, and the Steward Telescope Laboratory on the east side - two of the nation's most venerated research facilities.

In 1938, seating was added between the 25-yard lines on the east side to boost capacity to 10,000. Nine years later, the end zones were filled, and in 1950, the horseshoe at the south end was completed, giving the facility a capacity of 22,671 seats.

Expansion on the west side in 1965 provided 10,000 new seats, along with an 80-foot, multilevel press box. The two-tier addition to the east stands, adding 17,000 seats in 1976, was selected as one of six outstanding architectural projects in the Rocky Mountain States for 1977 by the AIA.

Permanent north-end bleacher seating for 4,500 was added in 1988, however, it would be removed for the new north-end project. The completion of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility gives Arizona Stadium a lower bowl configuration for the first time, a 360-degree experience for Wildcat fans.

1921 East-West Christmas Classic

Centre (Ky.) 38, Arizona 0
Dec. 26, 1921 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - A dominating squad from Centre (Ky.) College splashed to a 38-0 victory over Arizona in front of several thousand rain-soaked fans, spoiling Arizona's first-ever bowl game appearance.

The Praying Colonels held the Cats to zero first downs in the first half, and Arizona was unable to maintain a good drive throughout the game.

Centre's Red Roberts, one of Walter Camp's first All-America ends, scored the first touchdown five minutes into the match. Later, All-American Alvin (Bo) McMillin went over the right tackle for another score. Centre led 18-0 at the half.

The second half was much the same, as Centre dominated every phase. Just as Arizona was mounting a drive late in the third stanza, an interception ended Western hopes, and the Wildcat defense was unable to halt the potent Eastern attack. Centre's Herb Covington scored on a punt return and a sweep to seal the victory.

1949 Salad Bowl

Drake 14, Arizona 13
Jan. 1, 1949 // Phoenix, Ariz.

PHOENIX, Ariz. - Arizona couldn't overcome crucial mistakes, and the Drake Bulldogs triumphed, 14-13, before a crowd of 14,000 in nostalgia-filled Montgomery Stadium.

The fiesty Midwesterners were outgained by coach Miles Casteel's troops, 355 yards to 206, but the Cats had two fumbles and an interception that ended any hope for a victory. Drake built a 14-7 halftime lead on the strength of Frank Metzger's 1-yard run and Floyd Miller's interception of Ed Wolgast for a 20-yard score. The Cats got on the board with a 15-yard Wolgast rollout.

Arizona roared back in the second half, as running back Charlie Hall romped 79 yards with the third quarter kickoff. The Cats failed to score on their first thrust after the thrilling return, but after an exchange of punts, the durable Wolgast tallied his second touchdown.

Drake carried the luck on this afternoon. Arizona's Wrinfred Tackett, one of the Border-Conference's top extra-point kickers, booted the pigskin against the left upright, the ball bounced away from the goal posts, and Drake escaped with a one-point margin.

Wolgast finished the day with 133 yards rushing, eight yards more than Drake's team total.

1968 Sun Bowl

Auburn 34, Arizona 10
Dec. 28, 1968 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona battled Auburn on even terms for one half, but within a period of seven minutes in the second half, the Tigers scored 24 points to crush the Wildcats, 34-10, before 32,302 weather-beaten fans and a national television audience in the 34th annual Sun Bowl.

Auburn had taken the lead, 10-0, on a John Riley 52-yard field goal, tying a Sun Bowl record, and a 65-yard touchdown pass from All-SEC quarterback Loran Carter to Mickey Zofko. But the Cats were fit to be tied as Steve Hurley booted a 37-yarder after both teams exchanged turnovers. Arizona held Auburn on fourth down with under two minutes left in the half, and Arizona's Bruce Lee went to work. Two first-down pass completions set up a 12-yard toss to Hal Arnason in the end zone, tying the score 10-10 at the half.

In the third quarter, Auburn took the lead and didn't look back as Tommy Taylor scampered nine yards to put the Tigers up 17-10. Then Buddy McClinton intercepted Lee for the third time in the game and raced 32 yards to score. Auburn's next possession produced a dazzling Carter to Tim Christian 42-yard touchdown pass. Riley then kicked a 41-yard field goal to secure the victory with 11:14 left.

Auburn's Buddy McClinton was voted MVP of the game, and All-America tackle Dave Campbell was honored as the outstanding lineman.

1979 Fiesta Bowl

Pittsburgh 16, Arizona 10
Dec. 25, 1979 // Tempe, Ariz.

TEMPE, Ariz. - The 10th-ranked Pittsburgh Panthers survived a late rally and hung on to defeat Arizona, 16-10, in the 1979 Fiesta Bowl. A national television audience was able to watch superb defensive play on both sides. Arizona's defense held Pitt to 299 yards, while the offense dented the Panther's nationally-ranked defense for 317 yards.

Pitt led 6-0 at halftime on the strength of 46- and 36-yard field goals by the game's most valuable offensive player, Mark Schubert. Arizona moved the ball well, but couldn't get the one big play it needed. The Cats drove to Pitt's 37, 26 and 22, but came up empty each time.

The Cats' trouble came on key plays. Midway through the first period, they were stopped on fourth-and-two at the Pitt 21. Arizona managed to get on the board late in the third period on a 38-yard field goal by Brett Weber, but Pitt answered with a touchdown to expand its lead to 13-3.

The Panthers appeared to have wrapped up the game when Schubert kicked his third field goal of the day with 8:02 left. But the Cats reached into their bag of tricks to get back in the game. From the Pitt 47, fullback Hubie Oliver took a pitch and launched a pass down field to Greg Jackson who caught it at the Panther one. Oliver scored on the next play.

The outcome was in doubt until Terry White picked off a Jim Krohn pass with :58 remaining. Arizona's David Liggins was voted the game's most valuable defensive player on the strength of two key interceptions of Dan Marino passes to thwart Panther drives.

1985 Sun Bowl

Arizona 13, Georgia 13
Dec. 25, 1985 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona and Georgia each failed on late field goal attempts leaving the teams tied, 13-13, and the record Sun Bowl crowd of 52,203 going home with an empty feeling.

The teams battled on even terms for a half with Georgia's Steve Crumley booting a 37-yard field goal and Arizona's Max Zendejas adding a 22-yarder after an apparent Arizona touchdown was nullified by penalty.

The third quarter belonged to coach Larry Smith's troops, who drove 34 yards with the second-half kickoff before Zendejas nailed a 52-yard field goal. The Wildcats expanded the margin to 13-3 with 3:30 left to play in the stanza, as Martin Rudolph picked off a James Jackson pass and bolted 35 yards for a touchdown.

Georgia took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona 28, where Davis Jacobs kicked a 45-yarder to begin the Bulldog rally. Two plays later, James DeBow fumbled, and Georgia's Tony Flack recovered to set up Lars Tate's game-tying 2-yard run. Jacobs missed a 44-yarder with 1:14 to play. The Cats then used a 25-yard David Adams run to give Zendejas a 39-yard try with :10 remaining. However, his attempt was wide-right and short.

Zendejas and Georgia center Peter Anderson won outstanding player honors. Arizona finished the season at 8-3-1, while Georgia wound up 7-3-2.

1986 Aloha Bowl

Arizona 30, North Carolina 21
Dec. 27, 1986 // Honolulu, Hawai'i

HONOLULU, Hawaii - Arizona capitalized on big defensive plays to coast to its first-ever post-season victory, 30-21, over North Carolina. All-America free safety Chuck Cecil was the ring-leader of the Cat defense that forced five fumbles with bone-jarring hits.

The Arizona offense showed spark as well. David Adams closed his sterling career with 81 yards rushing and a touchdown and three catches for 77 yards. Offensive MVP Alfred Jenkins finished 12-of-28 passing for 187 yards and a score.

But it was coach Larry Smith's defense which made the big plays to set up points. A Jim Birmingham fumble recovery led to a 31-yard Gary Coston field goal to begin the attack. Later, Boomer Gibson partially blocked a punt, and the Cats put seven more on the board with an Adams one-yard scamper. Danny Lockett's sack of Mark Maye caused a fumble, and the Cats cashed in with another Coston three-pointer for a 13-0 halftime lead.

It was more of the same in the third quarter. Arizona's Jeff Valder booted a 52-yard field goal to set an Aloha Bowl record. Then Cecil clobbered Jonathan Hall, and Jerry Beasley recovered the subsequent fumble at the Tar Heel 30. Jenkins found Jon Horton from 13 yards out for the quick score. Another Tar Heel fumble led to Greathouse's five-yard scoring run, and the Cats were in control.

1989 Copper Bowl

Arizona 17, North Carolina State 10
Dec. 31, 1989 // Tucson, Ariz.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Arizona cashed in on big plays to defeat North Carolina State, 17-10, before an Arizona Stadium crowd of 37,237 in the inaugural Copper Bowl. The Wildcats were dominated statistically, 310 yards to 130 yards including a season-low 50 yards on the turf. However, two unlikely heroes, Olatide Ogunfiditimi and Scott Geyer, made the big plays to pull out the victory.

In the first stanza, neither team could sustain drives, but the Cats got on the board first as Ronald Veal found a double-covered Ogunfiditimi 37 yards down field for a 7-0 advantage. The second quarter proved more magical as Geyer, the Defensive MVP, intercepted Shane Montgomery and raced 85 yards for a score.

But the Wolfpack had a magic wand of their own as Montgomery, the Offensive MVP, capped a 56-yard, nine-play drive with a four-yard touchdown toss to fullback Todd Varn to cut the lead, 14-7. The half ended with a Gary Coston 34-yard field goal. Score: 17-7.

The second half included a Damon Hartman 43-yarder to inch the Pack closer, 17-10. However the New Year brought a little luck to the Cats, as Montgomery just missed a diving Chris Williams over the middle for the possible tying touchdown with 1:02 left.

Arizona Dick Tomey notched a victory in his first-ever bowl game in 13 years as a head coach. The Wildcats finished 8-4 on the season, and the Wolfpack closed at 7-5.

1990 Eagle Aloha Bowl

Syracuse 28, Arizona 0
Dec. 25, 1990 // Honolulu, Hawai'i

HONOLULU, Hawaii - Marvin Graves ran for two touchdowns and passed for another score as Syracuse embarrassed Arizona, 28-0, in the ninth Eagle Aloha Bowl game in rain-drenched Aloha Stadium.

Graves scored on a pair of 5-yard runs and threw 47 yards to Terry Richardson and 6 yards to Chris Gedney as the Orangemen ran their record to 7-4-2. Arizona fell to 7-5. The shutout snapped Arizona's 214-game scoring streak, the second longest scoring streak in NCAA history. The last time the Cats were shut out was a 31-0 defeat by Arizona State in 1971.

The Orangemen drove 65 yards in 13 plays following the opening kickoff with Graves scoring on a quarterback draw from the five with 8:35 left in the first quarter.

Syracuse made it 14-0 with 2:22 remaining in the half as Richardson slipped behind the Cat pass defense for an easy 47-yard reception. Arizona tried to get back into the game in the third quarter, twice reaching the Orangemen 35-yard line. But both drives died, and Syracuse put the game away in the fourth quarter with two long marches.

Graves was selected as Syracuse's most valuable player, and cornerback Todd Burden, who had two interceptions and caused a fumble, was selected as Arizona's most valuable player. The week-long inclement weather put a damper on many activities and caused many ticket purchasers to stay at home. There were 32,217 tickets sold but only 14,185 attended the game.

1992 Hancock Bowl

Baylor 20, Arizona 15
Dec. 31, 1992 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona's defense lived up to its billing on all but two plays; those spelled doom as Baylor's big scoring passes helped beat the Cats, 20-15, in the John Hancock Bowl.

UA, which unleashed a no-huddle, wide-open passing attack, opened scoring with a Steve McLaughlin first-quarter field goal and increased the lead to 10-0 with a 65-yard scoring drive capped by a George Malauulu quarterback draw for seven yards mid-way through the second quarter.

BU halfback Brandell Jackson hit Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard strike three minutes later, but Arizona answered with a 14-play drive to set up another McLaughlin field goal and take a 13-7 halftime lead.

The Bears, held to 47 yards rushing, went to the air and struck again with another Bonner TD catch for 69 yards from QB J.J. Joe. Shortly into the fourth period, the Bears capitalized on two Arizona fumbles in UA territory and cashed them in for two Terry Weir field goals and a 20-13 lead.

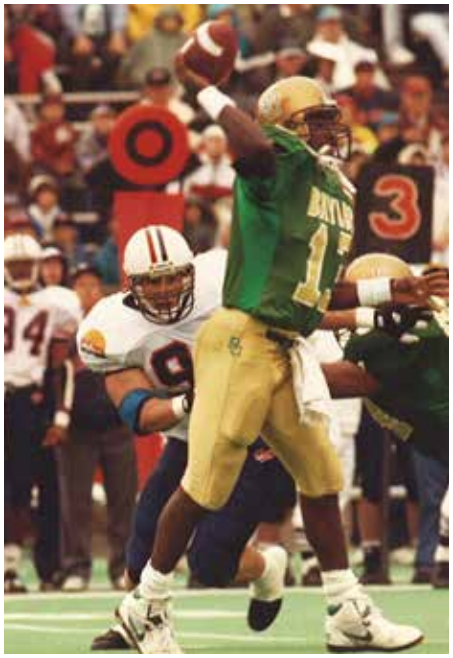

With time running out, Arizona held BU deep on fourth-and-eight, and punter Rhett Delaney took an intentional safety at 0:31. A Chuck Levy 27-yard kickoff return put the Cats in decent shape, and UA drove to the Baylor 28. Two passes from Malauulu into the end zone were incomplete although Heath Bray nearly snagged the game winner on the first try.

1994 IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl

Arizona 29, Miami 0
Jan. 1, 1994 // Tempe, Ariz.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Arizona's heralded "Desert Swarm" defense lived up to its name, and the Cats' offensive attack nearly named its own price as UA thumped No. 10 Miami, 29-0, in IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl XXIII. The convincing victory was the bowl's only shutout in its 23-game history.

UA ran for 257 yards and one touchdown, passed for 152 yards and two touchdowns, had three Steve McLaughlin field goals and held Miami to 182 yards in total offense. The Wildcats' swarming defense limited the Canes to Fiesta Bowl record-lows of 22 rushes and 35 yards, plus picked off three Miami passes and sacked the quarterback four times.

Tailback Chuck Levy ran for 142 yards including a 68-yard scoring dash and earned Fiesta Bowl offensive MVP honors, while defensive end Tedy Bruschi recorded a sack and earned defensive MVP honors for UA.

UA jumped to a quick lead on its first possession, driving 75 yards with Dan White throwing a 13-yard TD pass to Troy Dickey. Arizona never looked back.

The Canes' total offense was the second-lowest in Fiesta Bowl history, and the Arizona margin of victory was the second-largest in bowl history. Arizona enjoyed a time of possession advantage of 37:20 to 22:40 for Miami, another bowl record. Miami's frustration was typified by its first possession, starting at its own 37-yard line. Three plays later the Canes punted on fourth-and-41 from their own 6-yard line.

The game gave UA its first 10-victory season in 90 years of football, and its strong showing earned the Cats a No. 9 final ranking in the coaches poll and No. 10 in the media poll.

1994 Freedom Bowl

Utah 16, Arizona 13
Dec. 27, 1994 // Anaheim, Calif.

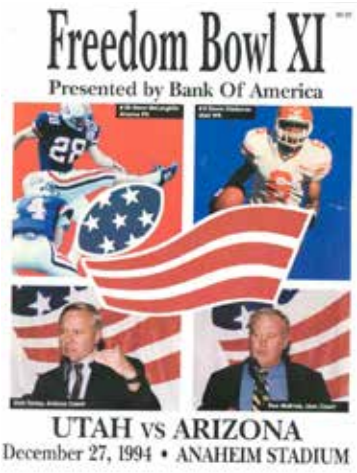

ANAHEIM, Calif. - Utah used a 72-yard kickoff return to set up the winning touchdown, as the Utes upset No. 14 Arizona in the 11th annual Freedom Bowl, 16-13. A crowd of 27,477 watched as the Cats used a stifling defense to hold Utah to only 75 yards of total offense.

Arizona quarterback Dan White connected with Ontiwaun Carter from 23 yards out to give the Cats the early lead. After a White fumble deep in Arizona territory, Utah running back Charlie Brown scampered in from six yards out to tie the score.

After a 44-yard field goal by Steve McLaughlin, the Cats had first-and-goal at the Utah 2-yard line, but two dropped passes by Tim Thomas and then Lamar Lovett in the end zone forced the Cats to kick a 20-yard field goal. Late in the fourth quarter with Arizona leading 13-7, and Matt Peyton having to punt from his own end zone, the Cats gambled and took a safety as Peyton stepped out of the back of the end zone.

On the ensuing kickoff, Cal Beck returned the ball to the Arizona 5-yard line. The Wildcat defense held the Utes on three straight downs to set up a fourth-and-goal. Quarterback Mike McCoy scrambled out of the pocket and was in the grasp of Chuck Osborne but managed to get the pass off and found Kevin Dyson in the corner of the end zone for the winning score. A final UA drive ended in an interception.

The Cats recorded six sacks on the day, three of them by Tedy Bruschi, who earned Defensive MVP honors. Chuck Osborne had two sacks, and Sean Harris led the team with nine tackles.

1997 Insight.com Bowl

Arizona 20, New Mexico 14
Dec. 27, 1997 // Tucson, Ariz.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Four Wildcat interceptions helped seal a hard-fought victory for Arizona over New Mexico in the ninth Insight.com Bowl, 20-14, before a crowd of 49,385 in the Cats' house, Arizona Stadium.

UA ran over the Lobos, using a 209-yard running attack featuring the quicker Trung Canidate and the bruising style of Kelvin Eafon on 43 of the team's 81 plays. Canidate was named the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player with 97 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries, while Eafon earned the game's Most Valuable Player award for his 75 yards and two touchdowns on 19 totes. Thirteen of his rushes came in the fourth quarter when Arizona used ball possession to turn back New Mexico efforts at a game-winning touchdown.

Arizona picked off four passes by UNM's Graham Leigh—one in the first quarter by cornerback Chris McAlister, two in the third quarter by backup corner Kelvin Hunter and strong safety Rashee Johnson, and one in the fourth stanza by cornerback Kelly Malveaux, who returned the ball 44 yards just as the Lobos were crossing midfield. It was Malveaux' first interception of the year. Arizona outside linebacker Jimmy Sprotte earned the bowl's Most Outstanding Defensive Player honor with nine tackles including four hits for losses of 12 yards. Inside linebacker Marcus Bell was the Cats' leading tackler with 10.

Arizona coach Dick Tomey gave fifth-year senior QB Brady Batten the start in the game. An injury early in the year cost him a shot at the every-day spot. He played all but the fourth quarter, when the nominal No. 1 guy for most of the year, Ortege Jenkins, came on.

1998 Culligan Holiday Bowl

Arizona 23, Nebraska 20
Dec. 30, 1998 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Arizona's defense held the storied Nebraska option rushing attack to 87 net yards, and the No. 5-ranked Wildcats cranked up some tough-guy rushing of their own to score 14 fourth-quarter points and beat the No. 14 Cornhuskers, 23-20, in the 21st annual Culligan Holiday Bowl.

The Cats secured the school's finest record in history and earned enough acclaim through their efforts in the game — the most watched of any college bowl game in ESPN history – to earn a final No. 4 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls.

Unanimous All-America cornerback Chris McAlister cemented his reputation with an outstanding effort, intercepting two passes, one which turned the Huskers back on their final come-back try with less than four minutes remaining. He also had a 78-yard reverse punt return called back because of a questionable blocking call against Derek Hall.

Arizona trailed 13-9 at the half, and both teams struggled through five possessions in the third quarter before UA's Dennis Northcutt gave the Cats some decent field position with a 16-yard punt return to start a 10-play scoring drive. Trung Canidate rushed five times for 37 yards in the span, and Keith Smith completed passes of five yards to Northcutt and Paul Shields and topped it off with a 15-yard strike to Brad Brennan for the score.

Nebraska answered, though, and reclaimed the lead at 20-16 with an eight-play, 88-yard drive, almost exclusively through the air.

With 10 minutes remaining, Smith opened UA's next drive with a seven-yard pass to Shields, then the Cats ran the ball eight straight times for the nine-play, 68-yard drive which netted the final score on a Kelvin Eafon one-yard plunge. Smith had runs of 20, eight and eight yards to set up the score.

UA halted the Huskers with McAlister's second pick and then later used enough clock with a first down to force Nebraska to get the ball back with 34 seconds remaining. One short completion and three incompletions, and the game was over.

Canidate ran for 101 yards on 22 carries. Smith, who completed 11-of-19 passing for 143 yards and ran for 25 more, was named Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP. UA's Mark McDonald, who was 8-17 in field goals during the regular season, was a big key with a perfect 3-for-3 day, including a career-long 48-yarder. NU outgained the Cats, but UA won the turnover battle and kicking game.

2008 Las Vegas Bowl

Arizona 31, BYU 21
Dec. 20, 2008 // Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Arizona capped its best season in nine years with a solid effort against No. 17 Brigham Young, beating the Cougars 31-21 in the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl.

The Cats took the first lead, set up by a 71-yard pass from Willie Tuitama to Terrell Turner, added a Jason Bondzio 31-yard field goal a third of the way into the second quarter.

Tuitama fumbled a low snap on the first play of the second half and BYU took a 14-10 lead four minutes into the frame with the gift 27-yard drive.

After that, Arizona stalled once, missing a 3rd-and-1 opportunity, but turned right around for a defensive three-and-out and two plays later Tuitama's 37-yard pass to Delashaun Dean struck put the Cats back in the lead.

The Cougs fought back with a 12-play, 39-yard drive, but missed a long field goal attempt. Tuitama hit successive passes of 19 and 17 yards, and after a five-yard gain by Nic Grigsby fired one down the seam to a streaking Chris Gronkowski for a 27-yard score, making it 24-14 at the end of the period.

Five minutes into the final period, Wildcat cornerback Marquis Hundley manned up and intercepted BYU's Max Hall in the end zone, taking it out to the UA 18 yard-line. Tuitama led a seven-play, 82-yard drive, sparked by a 27-yard run by Grigsby and a 23-yard pass to Turner, and then ran it in himself from six yards out for a 31-14 lead. Again the Cougars showed some of their 17th-ranked gumption, using eight Hall passes and two of his runs to get into the end zone quickly, and recovered an ensuing onside kick at the UA 48 yard-line. Hall drove BYU 28 yards, but Mitch Payne's field goal attempt banged off the left upright with 2:07 left.

The Cats ran the ball four times and then Tuitama scootched a three-yard pass to Mike Thomas on the final play of the game, giving the latter the Pac-10 career receiving record with his 259th reception as time expired. Dean led UA with seven catches for 88 yards to help Tuitama complete 24 of 35 throws for 325 yards and the game's MVP award.

2009 Holiday Bowl

Nebraska 33, Arizona 0
Dec. 30, 2009 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - No. 20 Nebraska showed it was more than two ranking spots ahead of No. 22 Arizona by throttling the Wildcats, 33-0, in the Holiday Bowl.

After developing a reputation for high-scoring games and crazy finishes, the bowl got the first shutout in its 32-year history. Zac Lee threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to Niles Paul in the third quarter to highlight the win, but it was only one moment in a dominating effort.

The coaches expected a defensive game, and the Huskers delivered, earning their first shutout in 46 bowl appearances, plus held UA to 109 net yards. Arizona quarterback Nick Foles was harassed all night and had one of his toughest outings of the year, finishing with nine completions in 30 attempts, for a miniscule 48 yards.

The Wildcats had the ball fourth-and-3 at the Nebraska 8-yard line with 1:41 to go, and eschewed a field goal, with safety P.J. Smith batting down Foles' pass to preserve the shutout. Nebraska free safety Matt O'Hanlon intercepted Foles on the third play from scrimmage and returned it 37 yards to the Arizona 5. Lee scored on a four-yard run two plays later. It was the fastest score in Holiday Bowl history, coming just 75 seconds in.

Nebraska (10-4) got its first 10-win season since 2003. Nebraska's Alex Henery set a Holiday Bowl record with four field goals, from 47, 50, 41 and 22 yards. Arizona finished 8-5. NU coach Bo Pelini earned bragging rights in Youngstown, Ohio, where he and UA coach Mike Stoops grew up and played at Cardinal Mooney High.

2010 Alamo Bowl

Oklahoma State 36, Arizona 10
Dec. 29, 2010 // San Antonio, Texas

SAN ANTONIO, Texas - No. 14 Oklahoma State kept Arizona's offense out of the end zone and used four Wildcat turnovers to spoil the Pac-10's first game in the bowl since its early years.

Arizona outgained the Cowboys 370 to 312 yards, holding the vaunted OSU offense some 200 yards under its average. After an initial stop, however, Bug Wright fumbled the first punt of the game and gave OSU a short field for a 26-yard drive and the lead. The Cats were stopped on their next possession and OSU's Brandon Weeden connected on a 71-yard toss to Justin Blackmon to add to the lead.

UA answered with a 63-yard drive to cut it to 14-7. After an exchange of possession a short UA punt set the Cowboys up at midfield and OSU settled for the first of three Dan Bailey FGs. On Arizona's ensuing drive, Nick Foles was intercepted by Markelle Martin and returned 62 yards for a score. Bailey missed the kick and it was 23-. UA took the ball inside the OSU 40 yard-line three times but could not score before halftime.

UA showed some life with an Alex Zendejas field goal in the third quarter to make it 23-10 but OSU answered with its longest drive of the night to make it 30-10. Another Foles' interception near midfield set up a second Bailey field goal. Zendejas missed a 34-yarder minutes later in the fourth period, and Bailey knocked one home again for the final score. UA drove to the OSU 9 yard-line but could not cash in on 3rd- and 4th-and-1.

The Cats had 25 first downs to 17 by the Cowboys, held a 15-minute edge in time of possession but were one for three in the red zone, were sacked five times (to zero for UA), and suffered three interceptions and the fumbled punt for -4 turnover margin.

Receiver David Douglas took home the Fred Jacoby Sportsmanship Award for a 6-catch, 91-yard evening while the bowl offensive MVP award went to Blackmon for eight receptions for 112 yards and two scores, and the defensive MVP honor went to OSU defensive back Martin for his key INT.

2012 Gildan New Mexico Bowl

Arizona 49, Nevada 48
Dec. 20, 2012 // Albuquerque, N.M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - With a last-minute touchdown and a successful onside kick recovery, Arizona football pulled out a victory over Nevada, 49-48, at the Gildan New Mexico in Albuquerque, N.M. Saturday's game ties the largest comeback in UA history (21 points). Senior quarterback Matt Scott was named Offensive MVP and junior linebacker Marquis Flowers was named Defensive MVP.

Nevada took a 48-35 lead with 1:48 to play. Arizona answered back with a two-yard Scott touchdown pass to sophomore Austin Hill with a good point after attempt to cut the score to 48-42 with 0:46 to play. Senior John Bonano converted a perfect onside kick attempt with the recovery from Flowers. The Wildcats went on to score the winning touchdown on a two-yard pass to sophomore Tyler Slavin from Scott with 0:19 to play. Flowers then immediately secured the victory with an interception on Nevada's final offensive possession.

Sophomore Ka'Deem Carey ran for 172 yards on 28 carries and three touchdowns. He now tallies 1,929 yards on the season, to continue to lead the nation in rushing. Carey is now UA's school record holder for rushing TDs in season with 23, including his three against Nevada on Saturday. He also set the Arizona bowl game record of rushing yards in a game (172). The previous bowl game record was 142 yards by Chuck Levy against Miami in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl.

In his final game as a Wildcat, Scott threw for 382 yards and three TDs on 28-of-47 pass attempts with two interceptions. He also rushed for 21 yards on six carries and one touchdown. Hill led the UA receivers with eight catches for 175 yards and two touchdowns. Saturday's game marks his fifth 100-yard performance of the season and the sixth of his career.

True freshman linebacker C.J. Dozier paced the defense with 15 tackles, nine solo and six assisted. Junior Shaquille Richardson collected his first pick of the season and the seventh of his career. Junior Jake Fischer recovered his fourth fumble of the season against the Wolf Pack. Flowers also recorded 10 tackles. UA had five true freshmen playing on defense during various points of the game: Keoni Bush-Loo, Dozier, Vince Miles, William Parks and Wayne Capers Jr.

2013 AdvoCare V100 Bowl

Arizona 42, Boston College 19
Dec., 2013 // Shreveport, La.

SHREVEPORT, La. - Arizona football defeated Boston College, 42-19, in the AdvoCare V100 Bowl Game in record-breaking fashion, Monday, at Independence Stadium. Senior quarterback B.J. Denker was named Offensive MVP and sophomore William Parks was named Defensive MVP.

The victory gave UA eight wins for a second-consecutive year, marking the first back-to-back eight-win seasons since 2008-09. Along with bowl game records, multiple school records were also broken for the Wildcats.

The six Wildcat touchdowns tied the Bowl record for most touchdowns. The Wildcats also recorded the most first downs in the bowl's history with 49.
The Wildcats' offensive clinic was led by Denker's 275 passing yards. True freshman Nate Phillips had 193 receiving yards and recorded the first 100-yard receiving game for Arizona on the season. He also broke the school record for most receiving yards in a bowl game as well as most receiving yards in a game by a freshman in school history.

Ka'Deem Carey finished off his junior season with 16-straight 100-plus yard games with his 169-yard performance. As well, he has officially become the all-time all-purpose leader in yardage. Prior to Carey, the record was 5,392 yards, held by Dennis Northcutt.

On defense, the Wildcats held the Eagles to just two touchdowns and two field goals. Jake Fischer tied his career-high tackles with 14.

2014 VIZIO Fiesta Bowl

Boise State 38, Arizona 30
Dec. 31, 2014 // Glendale, Ariz.

GLENDALE, Ariz. - No. 21 Boise State was able to hold off another Arizona miraculous comeback as it won the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl, 38-30, in dramatic fashion.

Boise State quarterback Grant Hedrick finished the game 24-of-34 for 309 yards, a touchdown and an interception. He also added 29 yards on the ground. Hedrick completed 17-of-18 passes in the first half for 272 yards, while completing his first 14 of the game.

Hedrick's main target and Offensive Player of the Game Thomas Sperbeck had a big game himself, hauling in 12 catches for 199 yards. Running back Jay Ajayi also had a phenomenal game, tallying 22 carries for 134 yards and three touchdowns.

Defensive Player of the Game Tanner Vallejo finished with 14 total tackles for the Broncos. He added 1.5 sacks as well.

For Arizona, quarterback Anu Solomon finished the game 28-of-49 for 335 yards, a touchdown and two interceptions, while rushing for 32 yards and a score, as well. Receiver Cayleb Jones hauled in eight receptions for 117 yards, and Samajie Grant added 69 yards and a touchdown. Running back Nick Wilson carried the ball 19 times for 86 yards and a touchdown.

Both Tra'Mayne Bondurant and Scooby Wright III had good days on the defensive end for the Wildcats. Bondurant finished with 11 total tackles, two for loss, one sack, one forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Wright added 10 tackles of his own and two for a loss, as well.

Boise State got off to a quick start on their first possession after a 56-yard touchdown run by Ajayi, capping a four-play, 78-yard drive, which took 1:42.

2015 New Mexico Bowl

Arizona 45, New Mexico 37
Dec. 19, 2015 // Albuquerque, N.M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Quarterback Anu Solomon and All-America linebacker Scooby Wright III returned from injuries to help Arizona (7-6) hold off pesky New Mexico 45-37 in a wild New Mexico Bowl.

Solomon threw for two touchdowns and rushed for another score against New Mexico (7-6) in a game that saw New Mexico surge late after being down as many of 18 points. Wright had two sacks and 11 solo tackles.

After the game, Wright announced he would enter the NFL draft.

Arizona's high-temp offense needed only 19:08 minutes of possession time to overwhelm New Mexico in the Lobos' first bowl appearance since 2007.

Jared Baker ran for 107 yards and three touchdowns, and Cayleb Jones had 182 yards receiving and a touchdown.

For Arizona, the New Mexico Bowl win comes just a year after Arizona eyed a playoff spot. Rodriguez said a bowl appearance and a victory was just fine for the team.

Meanwhile, New Mexico quarterback Lamar Jordan rushed for three touchdowns and threw a 92-yard touchdown pass to Delane Hart-Johnson before leaving in the third quarter with a knee injury. However, Jordan tossed two key interceptions -- one in Arizona's end zone and another deep in New Mexico territory.

After Jordan's departure, the Lobos then turned to a committee of running backs to get New Mexico back in the game.

Still, Arizona was able to hold star running back Jhurell Pressley to 75 rushing yards and no touchdowns.

Future Non-Conference Schedules

Below are future Arizona football non-conference games with finalized contracts between the respective schools dating through the 2031 season. Dates and locations of games remain subject to change in certain cases at the discretion of television partners of the Pac-12 Conference and/or the opposing host institutions' conference or other media rights holders.

Pac-12 Conference schedules are typically announced no later than January of the upcoming season. In the case of Arizona, the Wildcats are scheduled to play five (5) Pac-12 games at Arizona Stadium in even-numbered seasons, with four (4) games on the road. For odd-numbered years, Arizona will play four (4) home conference games with five (5) road contests.

The Nation's Oldest Rivalry Trophy

In summer 2001, officials at Arizona and Arizona State received NCAA Division I-A designation for the 1899 Territorial Cup as the oldest trophy for a rivalry game in America. The annual Arizona-Arizona State winner obtains possession of the Cup for its Hall of Fame, a replica goes to the winning school's president's office, and two later trophies used over the years in the hard-fought rivalry are awarded to the winning coach and the Most Valuable Player.

On Thanksgiving Day in 1899, then Arizona Territorial Normal School defeated Arizona 11-2 in front of a reported 300 fans, and the Cup had its first curator. But over the years, the silver-plated antique prize was misplaced and supplanted by various other awards for the Big Game - the Governor's Trophy (1953-1979), a "Victory" sculpture by artist Ben Goo, and a Saguaro Trophy, among others. Now, to ensure the safety of the original trophy, the actual Territorial Cup moves from one school to the other only under escort and the supervision of gloved archivists.

Each year, members of the media vote on a Most Valuable Player at the conclusion of the game. Since 2008, the honor as been named the Bob Moran Most Valuable Player Award, named after the longtime East Valley Tribune sports reporter who also worked at the Arizona Daily Star for 13 years and covered both schools as a beat writer and columnist. The Ben Goo Trophy, awarded from 1979 to 1998 as the game trophy, has become the physical award given to the game's MVP. The Saguaro Trophy, a smaller bronze piece commissioned from artist Dora Perry in 1998, is presented and kept each year by the winning coach.

The University of Arizona leads the all-time series 49-41-1.

Dick Tomey, Arizona's Winningest Coach

The end of the 2000 season saw Dick Tomey resign after 14 years at Arizona. More than two dozen counterparts had coached at the other nine league schools during his tenure. Tomey led Arizona to its two best seasons and left a strong legacy as a coach-educator and the winningest coach in UA history.

- Nine winning seasons; overall UA Coaching Record: 95-64-4
- Top 10 in career victories by active Division I-A coaches at time
- Pac-10 Conference Record: 60-49-4
- No. 8 on all-time Pac-10 coaching victories chart at time
- One of four coaches to win 12 games in 85 years of Pac-10
- Pac-10 Coach of the Year, 1992
- 20 All-Americans, 43 first-team All-Pac-10 players; Four Pac-10 POYs
- 1998 Provost Award for Outstanding Teaching
- Graduation Rate of 67 percent in final report; best in Pac-10, 10th in nation
- Seven Bowl Games, four bowl victories
- Arizona's highest national final ranking (No. 4 in 1998)
- AFCA Western Regional Coach of the Year 1982
- Eight Major National Player Awards; Four Morris Trophy winners

World War II Years
No teams fielded

Like many schools around the nation, Arizona did not field a football team during the World War II years of 1943 and 1944. The war began affecting college football programs as early as 1942, though the Wildcats managed a 6-4 record under coach Miles W. Casteel in their final season before the two-year hiatus.

Among those on the 1942 squad were William "Bill" Lowell (pictured), Rue Mattice and Stanley Petropolis, who served in World War II and were killed in action. Lowell served in the U.S. Marine Corps and died during the battle of Iwo Jima, a month-long conflict that killed more than 6,800 Americans. Petropolis was one of 19,000 American soldiers killed in the Battle of the Bulge, an attack by Germany on France, Belgium and Luxembourg late in World War II. Mattice, a First Lieutenant in the U.S. Army, died shortly after Japan announced it would surrender, flying transport in the Philippines when he lost power to both engines.

In 2008, a memorial was built on campus to honor Lowell and fellow teammates from the 1942 football team who served in World War II. The memorial was inspired by J. David Lowell, Bill Lowell's younger brother and a generous UA benefactor. Lowell donated $2.5 million in capital funding toward construction of the UA basketball/volleyball practice facility northeast of McKale Memorial Center. The memorial – which features a life-size bust of Bill Lowell – is located just west of the entrance to the Richard Jefferson Gymnasium.

David Lowell and his wife Edith later made additional contributions to the athletics department to fund construction of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, which is a five-story football building that houses the entire Wildcat football operation and encloses the north end of Arizona Stadium.

Conference Affiliation Notes

Arizona's first conference affiliation was with the Border Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, founded in 1931. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State Teachers College-Flagstaff (now NAU), Arizona State Teachers College-Tempe (now ASU), New Mexico and New Mexico A&M (now New Mexico State). Subsequent additions were Texas Tech (1932-35), Texas Mines (now UTEP, 1935-61), Hardin-Simmons (1941-61) and West Texas Teachers College (now West Texas A&M, 1941-61). The league was disbanded in 1961... Arizona played as an independent in 1961, transitioning to membership in the Western Athletic Conference, which began in July 1962. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State, Utah, New Mexico, Brigham Young and Wyoming. In 1967 UTEP and Colorado State joined. Arizona and ASU departed for the Pacific-10 Conference beginning with the 1978 football season, joining California, UCLA, USC, Stanford, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington and Washington State. Colorado and Utah accepted invitations to join the league in June 2010 and began play in the newly branded Pac-12 Conference in 2011.
